WILSON EMPOWERED TO USE MILITIA IN MEXICO

2 Troops of Tenth Cavalry Wiped Out in Carrizal Clash, Report

STATE'S TROOPS BEGIN POURING INTO CAMPS AT CAPITAL

Mobilization of Militia At the Capital Fair Grounds Is Under Way

SPECIAL TRAINS RUSH GUARDSMEN TO SCENE

Woodland Company Is First With 67 Officers and Men At 10:30 a. m.

SACRAMENTO, June 23.—The actual mobilization of the state militia today was begun at the state fair grounds. The first outside soldiers arrived at 10:30 a. m. Company E, of Woodland, with two officers and sixty-five men. An hour later a special arrived, with three officers and 150 men.

General Thomas has declared that California troops cannot be moved to the border until General Bell, commanding the western Division of the army, issues a specific order. Bell is in Seattle. It is stated at the office of Adjutant Thomas in San Francisco that no specific orders have yet been issued and probably will not be issued until the troops are properly equipped and recruited to their required strength.

U-BOAT TAKES NOTE TO SPAIN FROM KAISER

MADRID, June 23.—A German submarine has arrived at Cartagena. The officers disembarked and left for Madrid with a confidential letter for King Alfonso.

LONDON, June 23.—A news agency dispatch from Cartagena says the German submarine U-35 had left that port and was traveling in an easterly direction. In addition to taking an autograph letter from Emperor William to King Alfonso the submarine brought hospital stores for the Germans interned in Spain.

The commander of the submarine is quoted as having said he had destroyed fifty ships, including the French liner Provence, which was sunk in the Mediterranean last February, while serving as a transport, with the loss of several hundred lives. The vessel was accompanied beyond Spanish waters by Spanish destroyers, as it was reported allied warships were waiting for her.

'DAYLIGHT SAVING' IS CONSIDERED IN L. A.

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—The saving of daylight is being considered by business men here, and while some are of the opinion that confusion resulting would not warrant the change, yet they believe if it is made general all over the country it will be a very good thing.

In some instances the actual money saving is not considered of any moment, while in others where the nature of the business necessitates a great amount of artificial light, this is regarded as a big item.

SEACONNAT, MINED, IS TOTAL LOSS, REPORT

LONDON, June 22.—The American steamer Seaconnat, which was run ashore on the Sorby sands on Sunday after having been damaged by an exterior explosion, has been abandoned and declared a total loss.

Both Consul General Skinner and the British admiralty are making investigations to determine whether a mine or torpedo sank the vessel. The metal fragments from the hull have been examined by the naval experts at the American embassy and the general impression is that they are parts of a mine.

CHICAGO SAVANT DIES BY SLASHING THROAT

CHICAGO, June 23.—Robert F. Hoxie, professor of political economy at the University of Chicago since 1893, special investigator of labor conditions for the Federal commission on industrial relations, and a scientist widely known for his radical views on capital and labor, killed himself in his home at 6021 Woodlawn avenue by slashing his throat and wrists with a razor. His suicide is attributed to a nervous breakdown.

D. R. EDWIN HEATH of Kansas City was one of the most interesting participants in the meeting in Washington of the League to Enforce Peace. Dr. Heath has spent many years of his life in explorations in South America. He found a river in Brazil, which is named for him.

MILLION FOR RELIEF OF FAMILIES OF MEN IN GUARD IS ORDERED

One million dollars for the relief of the militiamen's families was appropriated today. Hay presented the resolution, providing for $50 a month relief to militiamen. It was passed unanimously.

LUTSK GAIN MADE AGAINST RUSSIANS

BERLIN, June 23.—The Germans have further advanced at Lutsk, Russian attacks at Brody and Caritchel have been repulsed, it was officially announced today.

Three French attacks west of Vaux have been repulsed, the official statement says.

Verdun Fight Rages
PARIS, June 23.—Tremendous fighting today is raging on the Verdun front. The French lines are holding. The Germans have been repulsed in the Champagne region.

The Germans made attacks of great violence west and south of Vaux, using asphyxiating bombs. West of the Meuse they renewed their attacks on Hill No. 304.

NO PEACE TILL ALLY SOIL IS SWEEP CLEAN OF FOE—SASSONOFF

PETROGRAD, June 23.—"Peace must come only when the allies' soil is swept clean of the enemy and Prussian militarism is forever crushed," said Minister of Foreign Affairs Sassonoff today. Sassonoff is sometimes called the "Pillar of the Triple Entente."

ANTI-MILITARISTS IN EFFORT TO PREVENT IMPENDING MEX. WAR

NEW YORK, June 23.—Telegrams to former Secretary of State Bryan, David Starr Jordan and Frank F. Walsh, urging them to meet three Mexicans to arbitrate this country's differences with Mexico today were discussed by the American Union Against Militarism. The union held an all-night session, seeking a way to prevent impending war. The union also dispatched messages to Central and South American diplomats, urging them to endeavor to extend their efforts to alleviate the Mexican-American situation.

NIGHT DRILL IN TRENCH WAR IS GIVEN GUARD ON BORDER

New Mexico Militia Drilled In Manning Earthworks For Defense

COLUMBUS, N. M., June 23.—A warplane today left Columbus on a scouting flight to the northern end of the American line of communications. A report that a body of Mexicans had been seen south of Palomas caused the reconnaissance.

During the night all the New Mexico militia, aiding the Federal service, was taken over the system of defensive trenches in order to be able quickly to find the first line of defense in case of an attack by night.

DE FACTO TROOPS QUIT CASAS GRANDES

SAN ANTONIO, June 23.—Brigadier General John J. Pershing today wired Major General Frederick Funston that the Mexican garrison had evacuated Casas Grandes.

As General Pershing made no mention of having occupied Casas Grandes, General Funston was inclined to doubt press reports that General Pershing had occupied the town. General Funston saying that he believed General Pershing would have notified him if he had taken such action.

The military censorship again having been tightened and all army officers having been notified to withhold information, it is assumed that General Funston, here, will make all announcements of military operations. The squadron of the Tenth Cavalry which was sent by General Pershing to investigate the Carrizal battle had not returned early today. Battery B of the Texas National Guard today was ordered to Brownsville.

Forty carloads of pontoon bridge material arrived from Washington. Two more companies of engineers are expected soon.

The distribution of the militia will probably not be made public until the units arrive at their stations.

500 RESERVE POLICE FORCE, IS L. A. PLAN

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—Trouble that might be started in this city encouraged by the absence of the militia, endangering the lives of civilians is to be prevented by a reserve police force of 500 policemen, if that plan is favored by the public safety committee of the city council, which now has the matter under consideration.

This matter was taken up by the city council yesterday at the suggestion of Acting Chief of Police Home and the Police Commission. Not only in Los Angeles but in many other cities of Southern California business and professional men are banding themselves together in well-organized and armed companies to check any hostile demonstrations by Mexicans.

BRIDGE THREATENED AS COLUMBIA FLOODS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 23.—The Columbia river at Vancouver, Wash., has reached a stage of 22.8 feet. Damage to the approach of the Interstate bridge now being constructed has resulted. The Willamette at Portland has reached 21.8 feet.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., June 23.—More water is running down the Missouri river at this point than at any time since the memorable flood of 1908.

The Great Northern at this point is completely tied up with the exception of the line to Billings. An approach to the Sun River bridge, west of the city, has gone out and traffic is tied up.

HOLY CITY OF MECCA CAPTURED BY REBELS

LONDON, June 23.—Reports have been received here that a serious uprising against the Turks is in progress in Arabia and that the rebels have captured the holy city of Mecca. The London newspapers declare that the rebellion is certain to have an important bearing on the war, especially as regards the participation of Turkey.

A Reuter dispatch from Cairo says the rebels, in addition to taking Mecca, have captured Jiddah, the chief seaport of Arabia, and Taif, sixty-five miles southeast of Mecca, and have proclaimed independence of the Arabs from Ottoman rule.

CALL TO BORDER BY EVENING, IS EXPECTATION OF COMPANY

Beautiful Silk Flag Will Be Presented to Militiamen By Local Elks

"We expect to receive orders before night to go to the border," said Second Lieutenant Ford of Co. L this morning. "We received orders last night from Col. Snierber, commanding the Seventh Regiment, to have every member sleep at the armory hereafter. This is the cause of my belief that our boys will soon be on the way."

A movement has been started by a number of ladies for the organization of a local relief board if the company is called out. The purpose of the board will be to look after the wants and needs of wives and mothers of the members if it should develop that any of them will need assistance during the absence of the provider.

The ladies heading the movement have taken an active and appreciative effort in behalf of the members of the company, and their proposal to provide relief, should it become necessary, will meet with the hearty support and approval of the entire community.

Goat Is Active

"Admiral Billy," the mascot of the company, a black goat, is sure having some "high life" in his association with the boys of the company. He has already been provided with a blanket, and he is getting more than enough to eat—to say nothing of the delicious dessert kept in store for him—tin cans. "Admiral Billy" stood guard all night last night, and while his continuous bleating kept some of the members from dropping into the arms of Morpheus as quickly as they usually do, not a word of complaint was made. His goatship has already learned the bugle calls, and when reveille was sounded at 5:30 this morning he was right on the job butting the full run of the armory and does not have to answer to challenges.

Lieutenant Denies Soft Impeachment
Lieutenant A. K. Ford denies that he is in any way related to Henry Ford. He is not in the least in sympathy with the peace policy of the manufacturer of "Tin Lizzies."

"Eats" at Dragon Tonight
J. T. Kinslow will treat the boys to a 6 o'clock dinner at the Dragon this evening. Walter Kinslow has just enlisted.

Ice Cream and Cake

Ice cream and cake in abundance was enjoyed by the boys yesterday afternoon, through the courtesy of the Dragon. A large freezer of cream and several cakes were sent to the armory and later taken to Birch Park, where they were served. The freezer was returned by the entire company, which marched to the Dragon, halted in front of the store. F. W. Fuller was called to the curb and the thanks of the company were extended by Corporal Swanner, who made a neat little address.

Tobacco Aplenty
All kinds of smoking materials have been left at the armory by business men of the city, who have either purchased it individually or made collections from friends for the purpose.

For Sore Feet
The Rowley Drug Company has shown an interest in the company by sending a large quantity of powder for use of those who suffer or might suffer from sore feet.

A Group Picture
The company was mustered in this forenoon for the special purpose of having a group picture taken by Leonard.

Drill at School Grounds
The 11 o'clock drill this forenoon was held on the high school campus, the grounds having been placed at the disposal of the company.

Sixty-six men and three officers are now at the armory, recruiting having brought the membership to that number. Enlistments since Tuesday are as follows: Halsey Lamme, clerk with the Santa Ana Wholesale Grocery Company; William T. Stone, rancher; Clyde E. Leatherwood, rancher; Walter Henderson, rancher; Walter T. Kinslow, mechanic; William Davidson, lather; Harold Linquist, tailor; Floyd Mitchell, mail carrier.

The Proper Spirit

W. M. Smart, manager of the Santa Ana Wholesale Grocery Company, is being complimented by the company on the patriotic spirit shown by him in the matter of the enlistment of Halsey Lamme, a clerk at the warehouse. When Mr. Lamme took the question up with him Mr. Smart advised him to enlist, granted him two

MUNITIONS FOR ALLY USE REQUISITIONED BY U. S. OFFICERS

REQUISITION MUNITIONS
SHAMOKIN, Pa., June 23.—Sixteen carloads of ammunition, consigned to New York for the allies, today were requisitioned by United States army officers. The cars were en route to Buffalo. They will immediately be sent to Fort Worth, Texas.

TWO TROOPS WIPED OUT, REPORT
EL PASO, June 23.—Unconfirmed reports received today from American mining companies in Mexico stated that troops K and C of the Tenth Cavalry were practically annihilated in the fighting at Carrizal.

BRITAIN TO ACT FOR U. S.
WASHINGTON, June 23.—The United States has asked Great Britain to care for American interests in the event of hostilities with Mexico, it was learned today. Britain was selected because it has extensive interests and numerous representatives in Mexico. During previous trouble the Brazilian ambassador did the work.

NEW RAID REPORTED

COLUMBUS, June 23.—It is today reported that Mexican bandits made a raid into the United States, fifty miles west of here, running a number of horses of Parker's ranch, southwest of Hachita, N. M. Loss of life and fighting are not mentioned.

DE FACTO MENACE TO ORDER

NOGALES, Ariz., June 23.—Loaded with 800 Carranzistas, a military train arrived during the night at Nogales, Mexico, just across the border. In addition, a quantity of artillery, munitions and other supplies were unloaded. There are now 2050 regulars and militiamen here, under the command of Major W. K. M. Jones.

DENIES SALVADOR OFFER

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Minister Zaldivar of Salvador today denied that his country would join with Mexico in resisting an invasion.

TO AID MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, June 23.—Despite the fact that a note has been sent by the United States to every Central and South American government, giving appraisal of the imminence of war between the United States and Mexico and that in which case it would simply be a state of international hostilities with no other purpose than to end existing menacing conditions, the republics of Salvador and Costa Rica today dispatched notice to the Mexican government that they will join with Mexico in opposing any invasion by the United States. Though an armed conflict with the United States now is considered imminent, the Mexicans here today were still hopeful that a settlement would be reached.

Mexican businessmen disbelieved that the United States would risk destroying the friendly relations with the Latin-American countries, after having labored hard to establish them.

A proclamation, issued by Minister of War Alvaro Obregon, calling on all who had been under arms against the Constitutional government to join with the Carranza forces in case of war with the United States, today was expected to bring a general response.

CARRIZAL AFFAIR DESCRIBED

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The war department has given the first report of the Carrizal-Carrizal affair.

The text of the report states that "Pershing in questioning returning troops in reference to the Villa Ahumada affair found that two troops, C under Capt. Boyd, and K under Capt. Morey, joined on June 20 at Ojo, San Domingo, and marched within a mile of Carrizal on the 21st. Capt. Boyd in command, arriving at 7:30 a. m., sent a Mexican guide to ask permission to pass through the town.

Gen. Gomez refused permission but sent a note by an orderly stating that Boyd might pass through the town, providing he stopped for fifteen or twenty minutes with Boyd, Mexican troops surrounding the town. Gen. Gomez then retired and Mexicans began firing."

Weeks pay and promised him his position when he returned.

Elks Will Give Flag

When the company marches out of Santa Ana it will carry a beautiful large silk flag which will be presented to it either tomorrow afternoon or evening, unless the company is called before that time. Dr. M. A. Patton, exiled ruler, took it upon himself to act in behalf of the lodge. Sam Stein has ordered the flag from San Francisco, and it should be here by tomorrow morning. It will be 6x10 ft. Clyde Bishop will make the presentation speech. The place has not yet been determined, but it will be either in front of Elks Hall or the armory.

EXAMINATION PAPER OF RECRUIT TORN UP BY HIS SWEETHEART

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—If Miss Alma Earnest could have had her way George Edwin Elwell, of 55 Navy street, Venice, would not have enlisted before that time. Dr. M. A. Patton, exiled ruler, took it upon himself to act in behalf of the lodge. Sam Stein has ordered the flag from San Francisco, and it should be here by tomorrow morning. It will be 6x10 ft. Clyde Bishop will make the presentation speech. The place has not yet been determined, but it will be either in front of Elks Hall or the armory.

While on his way he encountered Miss Earnest and when she learned of his intentions to enlist she took the examination paper from his hand and tearing it into pieces, threw it into the street.

Elwell returned to camp and reported the circumstance to Captain Simon, who issued a new examination paper to him and detailed a guard to accompany Elwell to the doctor's office. He passed the medical examination and joined the company.

L. A. MANUAL ARTS TO GRADUATE 262 PUPILS

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—Graduation exercises of Manual Arts High School will be held June 28. Two hundred and sixty-two students will be graduated. Despite the fact that the high school is one that has complete athletic, manual training and vocational equipment for men, this year's class has sixty more girls than boys.

NEBRASKA HARVESTING BUMPER WHEAT CROPS

LINCOLN, Neb., June 23.—Nebraska's great annual wheat crop harvest has begun. The largest wheat crop in the state's history is being gathered—such a crop as the state did not even dream of ten years ago.

Between 71,000,000 and 74,000,000 bushels of winter wheat is the estimate of the state's labor bureau, which also estimated that 7,000 extra farm hands were needed for the harvest.

Besides this, some spring wheat is raised in the northern section of the state, but this amount is relatively small and its harvest will begin in two or three weeks.

The wheat crop of Nebraska this year, it is estimated, will exceed that of last year by about 10,000,000 bushels.

ALL U. S. GUARDS SPEED TO LINE WHEN READY IS COMMAND OF BAKER

Administration Rushes Preparations As "Watchful" Policy Continues

CARRANZA TRYING TO AVERT WAR, IS BELIEF

Mexicans Holding U.S. Troops As Prisoners Source Of Real Trouble

WASHINGTON, June 23.

Secretary of War Baker today ordered every department commander in the United States to send his militia forces to the border as rapidly as he can equip them. The orders to the commanders are now already in their hands. The commanders are directed to delay the departure of the militia because of a shortage of field transportation equipment, which includes mules, horses, wagons and trucks.

The Hay amendment declaring that Congress considers the present situation an emergency and drafting the militia into the federal service passed today. It limits the federal service of the militia to three years. It gives the President power to order the militia into Mexico.

If the Carranzistas were responsible for the Carrizal battle, President Carranza can settle the difficulty by denouncing the act of his soldiers.

Three Mexican conferees will leave immediately to confer with Bryan and others to mediate the Mexican differences.

The Navy Department took official cognizance of reports that there was a Mexican warship in Western Mexican waters when Secretary Daniels instructed Rear Admiral Winslow to investigate.

Ambassador-designate Eliseo Arredondo, acting on instructions from President Carranza, today called on the Latin-American diplomats and explained the Mexican view of the United States-Mexico situation.

Militia Use Fight On

With the Republicans led by Representative Mann, demanding an explicit expression from the President of his reasons for sending the militia to the border with power to order it into Mexico, Chairman Hay of the House Military committee this afternoon began a fight to make the National Guard an actual Federal force.

Opposition of the Hay resolution because President Wilson had not appeared before Congress to explain the Mexican situation seemed to grow rapidly.

Chairman Hay pressed for immediate passage of the resolution, asking that its language empowering the President to draft the militia be made to read as follows:

"That in the opinion of Congress of the United States, whereas, an emergency now exists which demands the additional use of troops in the regular army, the President is hereby authorized to draft into the United States army all members of the National Guard."

Representative Mann objected, "I am authorized to say that the President believes the emergency is present and that it is absolutely necessary to command the services of the militia."

"Watchful Waiting"
"Watchful waiting," early today was evoked anew by the administration.

SAN MATEO TRIP REPAYSTROUT ANGLERS

Daniel Casey Lands Beautiful Steelhead Weighing Four Pounds

That the overcoming of hardships and obstacles in the trout fishing game has its rewards the same as in other lines of endeavor is amply evidenced in the case of A. B. Watson, Daniel Casey and W. O. Codding, who returned at midnight last night from a vastly successful trip up the San Mateo river.

The point where the three anglers fished is one of the most inaccessible in Orange county. It was necessary for the local anglers to quit their automobile and pack with horses for a distance of several miles before reaching their destination.

The route taken was up the San Juan canyon. When within four miles of the Hot Springs the party turned south, traveling for a distance of sixteen miles, through deep canyons and gulches.

The largest fish was caught by Casey, his catch being a beautiful steelhead, twenty-two inches long and weighing four pounds. All three men caught limits. The fish they caught averaged about twelve inches. The party was guided by Ben Velardes of Capistrano and it was largely due to his efficient services that the anglers were able to land the number of trout they brought home.

The fish caught by Casey will be on display in the window of Victor Walker's sporting goods store.

TWO MORE DEEDS ARE RECORDED IN A RIGHT OF WAY PROJECT HERE

Yesterday two more deeds to parts of the supposed Salt Lake right of way through Santa Ana were recorded. As in the case of the twenty-one deeds concerning which the Register had a comprehensive report on Wednesday, the property transferred yesterday is deeded to Warren F. McGrath, a Los Angeles real estate man.

One of yesterday's deeds was from Emma L. French for a strip two blocks long between First and Pine streets directly south of lots lying between First and Fourth street that were deeded to McGrath earlier this week. Mrs. French also gives a deed to a lot on the north side of Chestnut avenue.

Another deed is that from Mary C. Champlain to McGrath for part of four lots at the northwest corner of Brown and Poinsettia streets.

LETTER FROM MEXICO

FULLERTON, June 23.—Conditions about El Toro, Mexico, are going from bad to worse, according to a letter received by L. M. Gardiner from his brother, "Sandy" Gardiner, a mining engineer who is employed in the mines near El Toro. Mexican laborers at the mines are striking, he said, because of a change in the money standard and there is considerable suffering. Mexican officials are endeavoring to reach some sort of an agreement with the men. There have been no anti-American demonstrations in that district, Mr. Gardiner said in his letter.

GARDEN GROVE BANK ELECTS ITS DIRECTORS

Bean Growers Pleased With the Prices Being Offered For Limas

GARDEN GROVE, June 22.—The annual stockholders' meeting of the Bank of Garden Grove was held at the banking rooms Monday, June 19, 1916, at 8 o'clock.

The secretary's report showed the bank in good condition.

The following stockholders were elected as the directors of the bank for the ensuing year: F. E. Cloyes, C. S. Holt, Charles McKeen, William Schnitzer, F. H. Cloyes, H. C. Head and J. A. Knapp.

The following were elected as officers: J. A. Knapp, president; C. S. Holt, vice-president; F. H. Cloyes, cashier; K. N. Coplin, assistant cashier.

The president has been prominent in numerous activities here. Will Schnitzer was elected to take the place of the late John Weiser.

Miss Elfreda Biggin and Miss Eleanor Andrews of Redlands are guests of Mrs. Ray Christensen this week.

The bean growers of Garden Grove are in good spirits as a result of the high prices of lima beans. The buyers are offering as high as $5.13 per 100 pounds, F. O. B. Garden Grove. The high price of gasoline will not scare the bean growers this season.

Mr. Eugene Parmley of Tulare visited Monday and Tuesday with his aunt, Mrs. V. Donelson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Mattern of Kansas City are guests of Rev. and Mrs. Hull this week.

Mrs. Wm. Adland, assisted by Miss Winifred Adland, entertained with a dinner party Wednesday evening. The guests were Misses Constance and Georgina German and Muriel Arkley, Mr. Albert Schneider and Mr. Irvine German.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Army Rolfe Wednesday afternoon for their regular monthly meeting. After the opening song and prayer by Rev. F. G. Watson of Santa Ana a business session was held. Interesting reports from the convention at San Diego were listened to, followed by a stirring address by Rev. Watson on "Womanhood." At the close of this address a song by some of the young ladies of the Methodist choir was given; also Miss Gladys Reeks of Anaheim played an instrumental selection. As it was Flower Mission Day, the members brought bouquets to be taken to shut-in ones, and after the service these were distributed. A large number of bouquets were taken to the county hospital.

A very pleasant evening was spent by twenty-four guests Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Crane in celebration of the sixty-ninth birthday of Mr. G. F. Crane. Music and conversation filled the evening. At a late hour refreshments of chocolate, sandwiches and cake were served. Also a large decorated birthday cake was served. L. A. Crane, wife and family, also Mr. and Mrs.

Wednesday evening, June 21, the home of Mrs. S. B. Reik was the scene of social activities in honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Johnson, who were married in Garden Grove on June 9. Since that time the young couple have been enjoying a honeymoon trip in San Diego, Los Angeles and points of interest in vicinities. The evening was spent in games, all suggestive of the occasion, including an original poem of the courtship and marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, written by Miss Pearl Crutchfield. A very pleasant evening was passed by everyone. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. George Reyburn, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McElree, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sandman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Butler, Mrs. S. B. Reik, Miss Pearl Crutchfield, Virginia Sandman, Lucile and Anna Reid.

The Queen Esther Circle met with Miss Lizzie Brown Saturday afternoon for its regular meeting. It was also the annual mite box opening. The young ladies came dressed as immigrants. After the business meeting Mrs. J. T. McElree sang a selection of her own composition in honor of the superintendent, Mrs. George Reyburn, who has served the Queen Esther Circle as superintendent for eight years. After the song Mrs. Reyburn was presented with a casserole of love and esteem and appreciation for the untiring service she has rendered. A short program then followed: Miss Winifred Adland, reading; Miss Lizzie Brown, instrumental music; Miss Mabel Larsen, reading; duet, Mrs. McElree and Mrs. Anderson. The committee then served banana specials and wafers.

Today is a big picnic day for all the Methodist Sunday schools and churches of Southern California. They will all meet at the Orange County Park and enjoy the day together. Thirty machines were on hand at Garden Grove Methodist Church to take care of all who went from here.

Mrs. S. S. Jackson was called to Los Angeles Tuesday by the sickness of her daughter, Mrs. G. Capps.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kirner are visiting this week in San Diego.

Mrs. Henry Russell and daughter Inez are visiting relatives and enjoying the fair at San Diego this week.

WHY ENDURE SUMMER COLDS?
It isn't necessary to have a stuffed head, running nose. To cough your head off, as it were. All you need do is to use Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. The soothing and healing balsams open the clogged air passages and in a short time you get relief and start on the road to recovery. Your nose stops running, you cough less and you know you are getting better. Get a bottle, use as directed. Keep what is left as a cough and cold insurance.

WILL ASK A LEVY TO MAKE ROAD IN SANTIAGO CANYON

Orange News: The matter of placing the Santiago canyon road to Modjeska's ranch in passable condition was the subject of a spirited discussion at the meeting of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association Wednesday evening.

Mr. Weatherbee of the Hotel Rochester introduced the subject by reporting an interview which he had with Mr. Porter, the present owner of the resort. He stated that Mr. Porter has extensive development plans under way and will make the Modjeska ranch one of the best known resorts in Southern California. He pointed out the advantages to Orange of having the canyon road in condition so that machines may reach the place from the County Park.

Mr. Porter, he said, intends to advertise the place, not only along the entire coast, but in the east as well. He has appropriated $5000 for a preliminary campaign, the speaker said. If this road is made passable, travel will be directed through here in the advertising matter.

Mr. Weatherbee was followed by other speakers who represented the desirability of having the road placed in condition. Supervisor Struck stated that the road district had no funds for the work and that it would be useless to ask the supervisors to expend much money in improving a temporary road. He said that it is proposed to rebuild the road along the ridge instead of in the canyon. He suggested that a committee appear before the supervisors and ask a levy for building this road from next year's taxes.

It was finally decided to appoint a committee to meet Mr. Porter and Mr. Struck and take up the question with the supervisors. W. G. Hagen, G. C. Woods and A. Huhn were named. During the discussion, it was urged that if no other method of repairing the road can be devised, the people of Orange appoint a day in which all could turn out and fix the road themselves.

Reports by members of the Industrial committee showed that the committee has been active in compiling information regarding manufacturing advantages in this section. The members of the association were urged to assist in every way possible in the work.

Plans were made for the annual meeting at the County Park, which will be held next month. Committees were appointed as follows: Entertainment—A. Dittmer, F. E. Hallman, W. O. Hart. Refreshment—J. W. Morrison, W. G. Hagen, E. B. Peers. Transportation—C. F. Newton, S. Gillogy.

APPLE CROP LEADS DECIDUOUS CROPS

In the June report of the State Horticultural Commission it is stated that from present indications apples will be the only one of the principal deciduous fruits in California this year which will show a larger crop than last season.

This year's crop is estimated at 76 per cent of normal. The cherry crop, which is already harvested, only amounted to about 25 per cent of an average crop; the production being rated at only 27 per cent, compared with 57 per cent in 1915. The apricot crop is placed at 39 per cent, as against 71 per cent last year. The almond crop is estimated at 58 per cent of a full crop; figs, 90 per cent; peaches, 68 per cent; pears, 62 per cent; plums, 74 per cent; prunes, 52 per cent; walnuts, 79 per cent.

Last year the production for the above-named commodities was as follows: Almonds, 76 per cent; figs, 93 per cent; peaches, 80 per cent; pears, 71 per cent; plums, 79 per cent; prunes, 68 per cent; walnuts, 100 per cent; apples, 73 per cent.

tion, regarding the Mexican problem. The position of the administration tended to class the Carrizal battle with the now-forgotten Parral incident and the more recent unprovoked attack on the American sailors at Mazatlan.

One source of real trouble over the Carrizal affair is the fact that the American prisoners are still held in custody by the Mexicans.

As for the Carranza administration, officials here believe that the de facto president is trying to get his men into line to avoid hostilities. On the other hand, the attitude of his generals is manifestly unpleasant.

Release Prisoners, Demand
The United States government will make demands that Carranza release the American prisoners taken at Carrizal.

Returning cavalrymen, it is understood, told General Pershing that the Mexicans were at fault, starting the trouble.

Following a fifteen-minute conference with President Wilson at the White House, Secretary of War Baker said that no change of policy with regard to Mexico was contemplated and said that the administration was still waiting for information regarding the Carrizal incident.

A report from General Pershing, based on information obtained from returning troopers of the Tenth Cavalry, is in the hands of the War Department.

Secretary Baker refused to make public the text of General Pershing's message because he, Pershing, regarded it in the "rumor class."

Secretary Baker decided to put the lid on information which was not strictly official.

DELHI BUDGET OF NEWS NOTES

DELHI, June 23.—R. D. Gillison of Huntington Beach and Mrs. T. M. Gillison of Cypress visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gillison on Central avenue Wednesday evening. They attended the commencement exercises and saw their sister, Miss K. V. Gillison, receive her diploma. They returned to their respective homes on Thursday.

Mrs. F. J. Wagner, her sister, Mrs. Schultz, and little nephew spent Thursday here with Mrs. Herman Wagner. Mrs. Schultz and her little nephew, Edward Haggstetter, who have been visiting at the F. J. Wagner home since December last, are proposing to return home to New Orleans next week.

Sunday next will be Children's Day at the Sunday school here. An appropriate program has been prepared. Everybody is invited to be present.

STAY HERE SHORT, OFFICERS SEEK HIM IN FORGERY CASES

Former Court Reporter Who Is Sought by Oakland, Oroville Police, Known Here

A young man who went by the name of N. J. Clayland in Santa Ana is sought by police in Los Angeles, Oakland and Oroville, who have been in other cities, for passing worthless checks.

Clayland came here several months ago and secured a position as court reporter. However, he could not stand prosperity. He began crinkling, and soon lost his job. He went to Los Angeles, where he got $15 on a worthless check.

Yesterday Constable Heard got a letter from Oakland in which it was stated that a man whose description fits Clayland exactly had given two worthless checks there. The man had told those who cashed his checks to believe that he still had a place as court reporter in Santa Ana.

Today Sheriff Jackson's office got a circular from Oroville, stating that on June 19 forgery had been committed there by a man who represented himself to be a court reporter. The description again fits Clayland.

Deputy Sheriff Maxwell's record disclosed information that Clayland has served two terms in prison, one in Arizona and one in San Quentin.

LABOR TROUBLES AGAIN AWAITED ON THE CLYDE

By Ed L. Keen, United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON, June 23 (by mail).—The labor troubles on the Clyde are over for the moment.

That there will be further strikes in this big munitions making district is not only feared, it is expected.

Opinion in England today is divided as to the real reason why some 3,000 workmen, at the most critical period of the war, downed tools in defiance of the government and despite the patriotic appeals of their own labor union; but there are few who will dispute the assertion that the situation was sadly mishandled by the authorities.

In the first place the fact that a strike was on was concealed until the last possible moment.

Then, instead of acting with vigor under the acts of Parliament which forbid strikes in munitions factories on any ground whatever, and promptly arresting the offenders, the government compromised by merely deporting the ringleaders to another district.

That these men were not given a public trial is resented as much by workmen generally as by their associates.

Such a trial would doubtless have brought out the underlying causes of the strike. The charge has been freely made that German influences, including German money, were responsible. This is hotly denied, not only by the men involved but by labor leaders generally.

It is much to the credit of organized labor in this country, however, that the strikers have been roundly denounced by the responsible heads of the labor movement.

Even those labor leaders who are avowed pacifists, like George Lansbury, have condemned them.

"We pacifists," says Lansbury, "dare not interfere with the essential supplies needed by the army and navy until the nation gives the word to 'stop the war.' It is simply murder to send men out unarmed and improperly equipped. It is our own flesh and blood in the trenches, and at whatever cost, we will remain at home must do nothing to hinder them."

Lansbury ascribes the troubles on the Clyde chiefly to lack of sympathy between employers and workmen, similar to that prevailing in the South coal fields.

A SQUARE DEAL

Because the Register opposed the North Main street franchise, it is not to be classed as a "railroad baiter." And now when it asks for a square deal for the electric railways it is not to be classed as a "subsidized corporation organ." The Register plays no favorites. It stands for a square deal. And the recommendation of the State Board of Equalization, that the jitneys, the auto truck and other gasoline cars doing a freight and a passenger business be put under the authority of the State Railroad Commission, so as to compete on equal terms with the steam and the electric roads, strikes us as being no more nor less than a square deal.

According to the best available statistics, over $4,000,000 was diverted from the steam and electric lines by the jitneys and auto buses during 1915, and the loss in taxes to the state was more than $200,000 for the year!

IN OTHER WORDS, EVERY TIME A STEAM OR AN ELECTRIC LINE RECEIVES $100 IN FARES THE STATE RECEIVES $5.25 IN TAXES. EVERY TIME THE JITNEY COLLECTS $100 IN FARES THE STATE AND THE COUNTY GET BILLS FOR ADDITIONAL COST OF STREET AND HIGHWAY MAINTENANCE.

These are plain and simple facts, and understandable by every man and woman who cares to read. Does the average taxpayer desire that the steam and the electric lines be driven out of business? That is the simple question.

The answer to the question is not so simple. For a square deal means a square deal for the jitneys as well as for the electric roads. The jitney has its place in the transportation world. Indeed on some of the lines of traffic it has met a long-felt want and has already become almost a necessity.

The problem is of sufficient economic importance, we believe, to engage the best powers of the Railroad Commission.

SWIMMING

In properly conducted swimming lessons there is a wonderfully fine physical development. The boy comes to the swimming hole, the plunge, the bay or the ocean, his shoulders bent over by study at a desk. In swimming he is simply compelled to practice deep breathing against the water's strong resistance. No other exercise can be equally useful in developing the chest and heart. It was shown in one college test that thirty-four men made an average gain of eight pounds in weight and twenty-three cubic inches of lung capacity, by taking four swimming lessons a week for six weeks.

Unfortunately a good many boys never learn to swim. They may be located at a distance from any suitable river, lake, or seashore. On vacations they are relegated to the inglorious task of guarding the clothes of their companions. They are a peril to everyone in later life the moment they enter any kind of a boat. They miss a manly sport and the purest fun of boyhood. Families inconveniently located as respects this sport should make every effort to remedy the deficiency with good instructors for their children.

PERFORMANCE AND NOT PLATFORMS

Having given the platforms adopted by the Republicans and Progressives at Chicago the "once over," Democrats in St. Louis convention assembled, proceeded to grab what is most desirable out of each, and then sought to go them one better.

Party pledges are alluring things, and help to ensnare the vacillating voter; but after all it is performance that counts, and we have to read the Democratic platform in the light of the party performances of the past four years. That record rather than the St. Louis platform is the paramount issue. It is going to be a question of which party will best represent true Americanism the next four years, which will give the nation the largest prestige abroad and the greatest prosperity and progress at home.

Voters are going to compare the conditions of the country under the administration of the two great parties. They are going to determine for themselves which party has given the United States its greatest eras of

SOCIETY GIRLS LEAVE PREPAREDNESS CAMP

POMPTON LAKE, N. J., June 23.—Thirty young women of New York society started home from here today after three weeks learning the ins and outs of soldiering so that in time of need they may be a help to their country. They were under the command of Miss Candace Hewitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Hewitt, and were instructed by directors supervised by General E. Z. Steever, U. S. A., retired.

The Emergency Service Corps is the official title of Capt. Hewitt's girls, and in their three weeks' camp they covered a course of intensive instruction, embracing everything from messenger service to cooking and from peeling potatoes to bare-back riding. Miss Hewitt and her sister, Miss Lucy Hewitt, were the organizers of the camp. They took their idea before a committee of prominent men and women and after careful study the training course was worked out.

MRS. ASTOR MARRIES AND RESIGNS MILLIONS

BAR HARBOR, Maine, June 23.—Mrs. John Jacob Astor became the wife of William Karl Dick of New York at fifteen minutes past 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The wedding took place in the picturesque little chapel of St. Mary's, attached to St. Saviour's Protestant Episcopal Church, in the presence of less than thirty relatives and guests of the couple.

Simply, and with less ceremony than if she had been daughter of the village barber, Mrs. Astor became the bride of the young man who was her boyhood sweetheart, resigning a fortune of millions and a name carrying as much social prestige as any on the American continent.

The honeymoon is expected to be at Santa Barbara, Calif. The couple slipped out of the church by the back way, eluded a bevy of rice throwers and motored to Ellsworth, Maine.

Here they waited for three-quarters of an hour at the little frame station and caught the Bar Harbor Express for New York.

WEALTHY BAKERSFIELD MAN SLAIN IN CRASH

CALIENTE, June 23.—A wealthy Bakersfield jeweler, C. W. Wickesham, lost his life in an automobile accident one mile east of here. Wickesham, his son and a friend, were returning from an outing on the Kern river when he lost control of the machine, which turned over, hit a fence and fell back, killing Wickesham instantly and seriously injuring his son. Coroner Dixon of Bakersfield has taken charge of the body.

CONVICT MEMBER OF MOTOR BANDIT GANG

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—That he confessed to robbery to save Mrs. Eva Douglas Renwick, whom he declared innocent, was the testimony of John Fleming, ex-convict and alleged rifle bandit, in Superior Judge Willis' court yesterday. The jury found Fleming guilty.

Mrs. Renwick, with her husband and Robert Burns Fleming and John Schenck, were arrested several months ago on a charge of being members of a gang of auto bandits who terrorized the city during the winter months. Mrs. Renwick was later released. Renwick, Burns and Schenck faced trial today.

CHINO SCHOOL HEAD STILL STORM CENTER

CHINO, June 23.—The school fight, in which stories were circulated concerning remarks alleged to have been made by Principal Holter and his wish to see a chorus girl dance again, is not to be settled by ousting the principal.

Holter's friends have asserted that he would demand his salary for the next year whether his services were used or not. J. W. Whistler has been chosen superintendent.

Holter's friends hold that the meeting at which he was ousted was illegal.

DELHI ON THE MAP, ALSO 'ON THE JOB'

The "Register's" Wide Awake Correspondent Doesn't Wait For Opportunity to Knock Twice

DELHI, June 23.—Mr. Editor: It was with great pleasure, we, a few Delhi residents, read the letter in the "Forum" signed "A Subscriber." A few years ago, our little burg would have been utterly ignored by your correspondent. His mention of Delhi in company (miserable or otherwise) with Justice Cox, the Taxpayers' League, etc., is proof positive that the sugar town has made quite a big step towards the front.

Like Anaheim, Delhi has been on the map of Orange county a good few years, and like Anaheim has lain dormant a long time. But some twelve of fifteen years ago, Anaheim lost most of her sleepy old codgers and put herself into the hands of her more wide awake, younger, and more active rustlers, and see what a difference those twelve or fifteen years has produced.

What is to prevent Delhi from advancing even as Anaheim has—given the necessary time and push? Within the last eight years two big factories have sprung up here, giving employment to large numbers of people, and making a post office with money order conveniences a necessity. Three large grocery stores each do a considerable business, a dry goods store was erected and opened to the public early this year, and a few days ago another large store was brought in, and placed on Dyer road near the Keystone Dairy, which is itself a comparatively recent acquisition. The fact that Delhi is able to support all these trading stations, is sufficient proof that Delhi is in a fairly prosperous condition.

From a moral point of view, too, Delhi compares more than well with surrounding towns. Santa Ana, in spite of all its moral and educational advantages, its splendid high school, its numerous churches, meeting houses, evangelistic revivals, and its many other opportunities for moral education, suffers from thefts, burglaries, divorces, forgeries, blind pigs and other evils. Delhi, not being heaven itself, naturally has an occasional relapse from the path of rectitude. But then, Delhi has very few moral advantages, yet. Certainly there is a Sunday School, but there is no church, no minister, no library, no literary society. Even the revivalists think Delhi good enough to be let alone. Sure there are pool rooms, but they are quietly and well conducted, and are in themselves a proof of Delhi's advancement.

Our schools are fine, well kept buildings. Our school yards are second to none in point of size and general appearance. As soon as possible they will be thoroughly equipped with the necessary games and gymnastic apparatus. A class of eight graduated this year—an advance of five over last year. Delhi's contribution to the S. A. 4. S., 1915-16, numbered six pupils. Of these, two received their diplomas on Thursday evening—one to continue his education in the Junior College, the other to attend the Orange County Business College. One of these graduates had the honor of leading the senior class in its class song and march, and the second one has to her credit a five-years attendance (Eighth grammar grade and high school course) without a single absent or tardy mark.

That the higher education is appreciated in Delhi, is shown by the fact that one of her former graduates issued from Berkeley, this year, with her cap and gown, and B. A. attacked to her name. Delhi's list of registered voters at the last election numbered 109. A grammar school graduating class of eight, and a contribution of six students to S. A. H. S., seems to us a very fair percentage, and strongly indicative of the fact that Delhi is perfectly intelligent in the use of what few advantages she has.

There are numbers of still better things in store for Delhi. "Wait and see."

For all the help Delhi has had from Santa Ana, we are deeply grateful, and if "A Subscriber" has time to give us a helping hand we will gladly welcome him.

In the meantime, we heartily agree with the sentiments he expressed of the editor's softer side, and we, too, would gladly come more frequently in touch with that side of him.

Thank you, Mr. "A Subscriber," for giving us this chance.

FAREWELL PARTY

Mrs. Joe Wilke of Corona Is Honored by Friends at Galbraith Home Yesterday

Mrs. Joe Wilke of Corona, who leaves soon for her home in Corona, after assisting in the care of her mother, Mrs. A. Fischer, for several weeks, was given a very pleasant surprise yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. L. Galbraith on West Fourth street. The guests were members of the Woman's Benefit Association of the Macabees.

Mrs. Fischer and Mrs. Wilke were invited to spend the day with Mrs. Galbraith, the latter being told that the surprise was for her mother.

The afternoon hours were pleasantly spent with conversation and needlework and late in the afternoon chocolate and delicious home made cakes were served.

Those in attendance were Meses. A. Fischer, Joe Wilke, Laura Moyer, H. H. Hossler, R. B. Hoxie, W. A. Penrod, Carl Hagemann, Emma Hubbard, John Rudolph, George E. Peters, E. A. Biggs, Charles Schmiedeburg, S. T. Miller, Summerville, Combs, Baer, Olive Lopez, C. E. Jasper, Hamilton, and Parker, and Miss Marguerite Galbraith.

Had Willie Bake

The Junior Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Fine on Santa Clara avenue and from there went to the Santiago creek, where they spent a most enjoyable afternoon with games and luscious waffles baked "a la Santiago." Mrs. Fine and Mrs. W. T. Kirven chaperoned the merry party.

PROGRESSIVE ROOK

Young Ladies Given Surprise Last Evening As Farewell Courtesy

A jolly farewell party was held last evening at the home of Miss Ray Knight, in honor of Misses Dulcinea and Earnestine Browne, who left today for Oregon.

The early part of the evening was spent in writing a series of letters to the girls to be read while on board the ship.

Lunch was served, which consisted of sandwiches, salmon croquettes, pickles, orange ice and wafers.

Following this, progressive rook and music were enjoyed until a late hour, when the guests took their departure, after bidding the honorees a safe and happy trip.

Those who enjoyed the delightful evening were Misses Ray Knight, Eleanor Sturgeon, Irene Warwick, Millicent Long, Violet Long, Bertha Miller, Mildred Dixie, Earnestine Browne, Emma Davis, Ireta Coulson, Marian Calhoun, Esther Jensen, Lois Martin, Dulcinea Browne, Mabel Stumpf, Edna Rash, Ella Davis and Mrs. Roscoe Knight.

LADIES' AID MEETING

Presbyterian Women In Large Numbers Hear Interesting Things on Program

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church met in the church parlor Wednesday afternoon with an unusually large number in attendance.

Mrs. C. Y. Martin led the devotionals, taking for the subject of her remarks the story of the woman of Samaria. After a short business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. E. L. Morrison, splendid reports were given by Mrs. Ames and Mrs. Smiley of their visit to the Federated Aid Society of Los Angeles, Los Angeles, June 7.

So far as is known, this is the only Federation of Aid Societies in the world and has for its object the helping of ministers, widows and orphans, as well as general relief work, not only in this church but wherever needed.

Two pleasing musical numbers were nicely rendered by Naomi McGillivray and Alvin Balch.

Mrs. Sadie Nourse Welton, with her two young daughters dressed in native costumes, gave a realistic exhibition of the manner in which meals are served in far away Korea. They also showed how the ironing is done. Mrs. Welton is a very interesting speaker and her talk on the home life of women in Korea was highly appreciated by all the ladies present.

As this was the last meeting of the society before the summer vacation, one verse of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" was sung at the close of Mrs. Welton's talk. Ice cream with homemade cake was served.

To Take Delightful Trip

B. C. Warfield of Sandoval, Ill., uncle of Mrs. M. H. Shields of Minter street, accompanied by his niece, Miss Lela Shields, as his guest, left this morning for an extended trip through the east, visiting many points of interest.

The travelers will remain in Los Angeles until Monday, when they will go north via the Great Northern.

Sixteen friends and relatives gathered at the Shields home last evening to bid the travelers farewell and to wish them a happy journey and a safe return. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Shields of Belleflower.

Mrs. Ellis Smith Marries

The many friends of Mrs. Emilie S. Smith will be greatly surprised to learn of her marriage yesterday to James Graham, a well known business man of Santa Barbara, the wedding being performed by Dr. Charles Edward Locke, cousin of the groom, at high noon in Los Angeles.

Mr. Graham was a very close friend of the late Ellis Smith and took his bride to Santa Barbara, where he had a beautiful home in readiness.

The bride has a host of warm friends here, who will extend to her and her husband warmest congratulations.

Dr. S. V. West has taken the beautiful home on North Main street belonging to Mrs. Graham.

BARDWELL-RICHEY

Popular Teacher of Anaheim Becomes Bride of Mr. Bardwell of Santa Ana

The marriage of Miss Helen S. Richey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Richey, of South Olive street, Anaheim, to J. A. Bardwell of Santa Ana, took place Wednesday at noon at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. C. W. Daniels of the Christian church officiating.

The marriage was the culmination of a romance begun in school days in Colorado, where the bride and groom lived on adjoining farms.

The bride was most becomingly gowned in white silk crepe meteor, with satin and pearl trimmings. She wore real orange blossoms in her hair and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas.

Only the immediate relatives were present to witness the ceremony. A delightful wedding luncheon was served following the ceremony, to which all did ample justice. Smilax and Cecile Brunner roses were the decorations.

At 2:45 the bride and groom, who had quietly stationed their automobile some blocks away from the home, but which had been discovered by the brothers and sisters, and which had been most appropriately decorated, left ostensibly for the Santa Fe station.

The others followed in autos well provided with rice and overtaking them on South Los Angeles street, gave them the proper shower and sent them on their way to San Diego, where the honeymoon will be spent.

The bride has been a teacher in the Anaheim schools the past year and actively engaged in the social affairs of the school life.

She was a member of the Christian church and when duties permitted her attendance, presided with grace and skill at the piano.

Mr. Bardwell, who is not entirely unknown in Anaheim, is engaged in the automobile business in Santa Ana, where they will make their home.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mrs. G. B. Lamme Surprised By Old Friends, Pleasantly Celebrates Birthday

Reaching her seventy-first year in a long and useful life, Mrs. G. B. Lamme of 829 Garfield street, was given a very pleasant surprise yesterday evening by a number of friends, formerly living in the east.

The enjoyable affair was planned and carried out by Mrs. Lamme's daughter, Mrs. C. A. Bach, the honored lady having been invited to dine with Mrs. C. E. Lamme and family.

The home was prettily decorated with beautiful sweet peas and Mrs. Lamme received a hearty welcome upon her return. She was also presented with a number of appreciated gifts in honor of her natal day. Eighteen guests were present and the time was spent with pleasant conversation and reminiscences of other days, refreshments being served before the company dispersed.

Woman's Club Picnic

The annual picnic of the Woman's Club will be held at Balboa next Tuesday, at the beach cottage of Mrs. Ana Vandermaast on Bay avenue. Those going on the electric car will get off at Coronado street.

Played for Parents

The little pupils of Mrs. Arnold Peek, who are studying the Burrows Kindergarten Course, entertained their mothers and friends with their interesting work yesterday. Their work included rhythm, scale and chord drills and games, analysis of musical form, their own composition, and the following program:

"Madam Fly," "The Snap Bug," "The Grasshopper" (Bugbee), Muriel Jerome; "The Blacksmith," Arnold Peek; "Among the Daisies," "Boat Song" (Bilbo), Doris Hill; "Suncay Bellis," "Dancing on the Green" (Smith), Doris Hill and Muriel Jerome.

After several numbers by Mrs. Peek, refreshments were served.

Pleasant Birthday Surprise

Miss Alpha Henry and Roy Osborn yesterday evening planned and carried to a very successful conclusion a birthday surprise, Miss Florence Miller being the victim and the occasion her twenty-first birthday.

During the absence of Miss Miller, the home was beautifully decorated with pink roses and Miss Miller found her friends waiting when she arrived at her East Fourth street home.

The time was happily spent with guessing games and rook, together with music and singing.

Miss Miller was presented with a number of lovely gifts and before the company departed, brick ice cream, cake and candy, carrying out the pink color motif, were served.

Those who participated in the surprise were Misses Mildred Murphy, Irene Swanner, Esther Zimmerman, Alpha Henry, Cressie Miller, Lucille Miller, Messrs. Chilton Waters, Ashlie Hardy, Hubert Tooman, Donald Stevenson, Roy Osborn.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee. Advertisement.

What Makes Clothes Last?

Some say material, some say cut, others say workmanship.

But we claim it isn't any one of these, but a combination of the three.

And we call that combination "the science of clothes making." That's why we have so much confidence in the clothes we offer. Their makers aren't beginners—they've been at it for 70 years. Their policy has been constant from the start—to put the utmost value into men's clothes at $15, $20, $25 and $30.

AMUSEMENTS

At the West End

The Drury Lane Theater shown in the Pallas photo-drama "David Garrick" released on the Paramount program was made realistic and authentic even to the smallest detail.

If it were possible to be dropped back into those days just such shops, houses and such a theatre would be passed by the strollers along the flagstone pavement.

The quaintness of the goods displayed in the meagre shop windows, the narrowness of the tall doors and windows, the sedan-chairs, and the crude methods of the daily life are graphically and very interestingly shown.

This photoplay is shown on the Paramount Program at the West End Theatre tonight and tomorrow.

WIFE OF SOUTHERN COUNTIES GAS FIRM PRESIDENT IS DEAD

Mrs. Ferdinand R. Bain passed away at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at her country home at Montecito, after an illness of only a few days. Her husband, Ferdinand R. Bain, who is president of the recently formed Southern California Gas Company, was in New York, completing the transfer of the companies consolidated under the new corporation, when his wife was taken ill, and arrived only a short time before her death. Through his connection with the gas business, Mr. Bain has made

H. H. Favour of Pasadena locates in Palo Verde Valley —

He says:

"As an alfalfa, dairying, stock raising, cotton, fruit and vegetable country, Palo Verde Valley is in a class by itself. I am positive that it is impossible to get land and water such as we have here anywhere else in the state at such low prices." Mr. Favour has had long experience in scientific hog raising. He is one of the best authorities on hogs in the State.

For Land and Water

Write or call for the most interesting farm land book (free) ever published—just off the press.

A wonderful story of Palo Verde Valley conservatively told by the ranchers who have made good there.

Filled with "prosperity pictures" of every industry in the valley—stock raising, dairying, hogs, cotton, grain, alfalfa, fruit, vegetables, etc.

A book that will open the eyes of every farmer in the State. It shows the wonderful results which have been accomplished in this fertile evergreen valley, "an inland empire in California"—even with a handicap of a 42-mile haul by mule teams to the railroad.

The California Southern R. R., which is now building into the valley, will remove forever the only undesirable condition the ranchers have had to contend with.

The wonderful achievements and tremendous possibilities of Palo Verde Valley have been little known. Publicity and proper transportation will transform the valley into one of the richest inland empires in the West.

FULLERTON DAY TO BE SUCCESS

Fullerton Tribune: The "Fullerton Day" excursion certainly put Fullerton on the map. The itinerary included every city of any size in Orange county—Placentia, Olinda, Brea, La Habra, Buena Park, Seal Beach, Huntington Beach, Newport, Balboa, Tustin, Orange, Santa Ana and Anaheim.

It was a 30-mile trip of enthusiasm and Fullerton spirit. Saturday, June 24, promises to be a great success.

There is no fee whatever attached to participation in the Orange County Baby Show on Fullerton Day. Children up to two years of age are eligible.

Prizes are as follows: First, $50 in gold; second, $25 in gold; third, $15 in gold.

The prizes for the following may be seen in the window of the Dean Hardware Company where they will be awarded next Saturday evening: The youngest baby shown; the baby with the prettiest curly hair; the fattest baby; the baby with prettiest dimples; the brightest baby; the youngest baby that can walk; the baby under one year possessing the most teeth; the strongest baby; baby with deepest blue eyes; baby with darkest brown eyes; the most sensibly dressed baby; the baby under one year who can say the most words; the most serious baby; the baby with the cutest ways; the most bald-headed baby; the baby with the most hair; prize for the prettiest twins.

The judges will be from Anaheim, Santa Ana and from the County Hospital.

The registration blanks can be obtained from any store in Fullerton or by telephoning C. R. Allen.

Mr. Thurber of the Sports committee has everything well in hand and will offer an entertainment that will keep everyone excited and interested all afternoon.

The local team of quill-tossers has issued a ringing challenge to all cities. At this time Orange, Santa Ana and Pasadena have accepted the def.

The parade committee, Mr. Le Marquand and Mr. Elmers, are producing a novel parade the like of which has never been seen in this county.

Many of the Junior College and High School students play an important part. Leland Pickering is to be the star performer.

The Anaheim Fire Department and the Fullerton Fire Department will engage each other in a big water fight. There will be comical sports and the latest addition to the side-splitting events is a Ford tug-of-war. Mr. Wickensheim of Fullerton has challenged Mr. Ingram of Anaheim. These two gentlemen will couple Fords together and forthwith endeavor to pull one another out of town.

Entries are coming in steadily and the first baby show promises to be the forerunner of many similar events of growing interest and magnitude.

The parade has aroused the interest of the county and people are going to crowd into Fullerton in surprising numbers.

Orange, June 23.—A simple home ceremony yesterday morning united Miss Lena Miller, daughter of Mrs. C. G. Miller of 476 South Orange street, to Mr. Otto Loeschner of Fresno.

Rev. Jacob Kogler of St. John's Lutheran Church read the impressive double ring service at 9 a. m., only the immediate family being present.

Beneath a bower of greenery the ceremony was performed, the bride couple being attended by Miss Helen Miller and R. W. Miller, sister and brother of the bride, as bridesmaid and best man. The bride was beautifully gowned in gray tulle with a corsage bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses.

The bridesmaid wore a handsome gown of white crepe.

Heartily congratulations will await the return of Mr. and Mrs. Loeschner, both of whom have many warm friends in the community. They will reside on East Palmyra avenue where a new residence is now in the course of construction for them.

Miss Emma Gunther and her sister, Mrs. Ernest Bandick, entertained with a delightful party shower Tuesday evening in honor of their cousin, Miss Alma Grumm, who is a June bride-to-be.

The guests included only the near relatives who passed a very pleasant informal evening. Miss Grumm received a number of useful gifts consisting principally of canned fruit and jelly.

Games and guessing contests filled the time enjoyably, Miss Grumm and Miss Marie Trost capturing prizes. Following were those present: Mrs. W. Gunther, Mrs. F. W. Grumm, Mrs. E. Craemer, Mrs. A. Dittmer, Mrs. E. Doeschner, Mrs. L. D. Gunther, Mrs. O. E. Gunther, Mrs. Louis Intorf, Mrs. J. P. Craemer, Mrs. William Battemann, Miss Alma Grumm, Miss Marie Trost, Miss Eleanor Loeschner, Miss Helen Craemer and Mrs. Ernest Bandick.

One of a series of prenuptial events complimentary to Miss Alma Grumm was a delightful miscellaneous shower yesterday afternoon given by Miss Alma Lane at her home on North Glassell street. Dainty place cards announced June 28 as the date of Miss Grumm's marriage to Mr. William F. Meeske. The color scheme was cleverly carried out in the refreshments.

During the afternoon the guests were entertained with progressive games and amused themselves by offering numerous useful and helpful suggestions to the bride-elect. Thirty guests enjoyed the affair.

C. A. Winters, John Blaeholder and C. A. Mitchell left early yesterday morning by automobile for the vicinity of Fresno, where they will spend a few days on business.

Rev. J. E. Hall went to Pasadena Wednesday to attend the funeral of Rev. E. H. Fritz, pastor of the Lincoln Avenue M. E. Church, who passed away suddenly.

A. M. Smith of East Chapman avenue left Monday evening for Barstow, where his brother, S. J. Smith of Los Angeles, is critically ill.

REPUBLICANS ARE TO HOLD PRIMARIES TOMORROW

All over Orange county, informal primaries are to be held tomorrow by Republicans for the purpose of electing delegates to the Congressional conference to be held at San Diego on July 1, at which time it is proposed to select a Republican for recommendation for the Republican nomination for Congress.

Any registered Republican can take part in the primaries. The polls will be open from 12 o'clock noon until 6 p. m. Representation has been distributed according to the vote cast at the May primaries. Orange county is entitled to forty delegates.

Santa Ana is to have three polling places. In all other townships there will be one polling place for each township. The polling places follow: City of Santa Ana—City Hall.

HUNTINGTON BEACH

NEW DANCE CLUB AND S. S. PICNIC

Social and Personal Activities Engage the People of the Beach Town

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Cal., June 23.—The members of the First Baptist Sunday school and their friends spent a glorious day picnicking at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Preston. The crowd met at the church on the corner of Sixth and Orange at 9:30 a. m. and were taken from there in a hay rack and autos to the Preston ranch, which is four miles north of town. The young boys spent most of the day swimming and canoeing on an artificial pond at their disposal. A grand feed was served at noon on the grass in the big grove. The crowd scattered over the ranch in the afternoon, and when evening came returned home happy and tired.

Among the visitors were Miss Bessie Hibbard of Los Angeles and Miss Fredericks from the East.

The Sunday school appreciates the kindness of the Prestons in allowing them the use of the grove and the water.

The Home Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. H. T. Sundbye and spent an enjoyable and profitable afternoon. Mrs. Sundbye, as hostess, served refreshments. The following people were guests: Mrs. L. C. Preston, Mrs. Will Preston, Mrs. Farewell and sister, Miss Fredericks; Mrs. E. M. Ufford and daughters, Misses Marcia and Jennie Ufford; Mrs. Dow, Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. O'Keefe, Miss Annie O'Keefe, Mrs. Alex Cameron, Miss Helen Sundbye and Miss Hester Gray.

The principal of the Huntington Beach Central School, Mr. Campbell, is stopping at present at the Hotel Evangeline on Eighth street. He and his wife will move to their new home on Alabama avenue as soon as it is ready for them.

The basement of the public library is being improved and furnished. Shelves are being built in the south end. A large oak table and eight chairs are also to be put in the south end for the adults. The other end of the basement is to be devoted to the children's story-telling department. Thirty-four small folding chairs have been purchased for the little ones. The carpenter doing the work is Mr. Polli, who lives on Orange avenue, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets.

A Huntington Beach dancing club has been formed. The leading members are Carlos Rigdon, Mrs. Stewart of the Troy Laundry, Gail Bergy. The dances are held every Friday evening in the pavilion on the beach. Musical talent is brought from Los Angeles. Refreshments are served by Henry Brooks, a well-known dancer of this city. He appears in full uniform of his profession and gives the dances an atmosphere of real class.

Mrs. Mary J. Strack, who has been staying at the Hotel Evangeline, has gone to Long Beach for a short stay with her daughter, Mrs. Phelps of that city.

Miss Clyde Gleaves, who taught oratory and dramatics in the Huntington Beach Union High School during the past few years, has gone to Chattanooga, N. Y., where she will spend the summer. Miss Gleaves will not return to this school next year.

Mr. George Shirley, who has been in the hospital for a few days on account of a tendon in his arm being cut, has returned and is doing nicely.

Grandpa Hendricks fell from the hay loft of the barn on the Ufford ranch, six miles north of here, and was severely hurt in one foot. It is hoped he will recover without much suffering.

The following letters remained uncalled for in the post office at Santa Ana, Calif., for the week ending June 24, 1916:

TALK OF CHANGE FOR WHITTIER JOINING WITH ORANGE CO.

Quaker to Discuss Plan At Brea Meeting of Associated Chambers

There is talk of a possibility of Whittier becoming a part of Orange county.

There are a considerable number of Whittierites who do not favor the reported plan of Los Angeles to make the Quaker City a part of the Angel City and a delegation of those not in favor of the move will be present at the June meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county at Brea, Wednesday, June 28, to talk over ways and means of a possibility of joining Whittier with Orange county.

The ultimate aim of Los Angeles for a combination city and county government is to include a number of cities which, if not actually hostile to the plan, are at least far from viewing it with equanimity and Whittier is among these. The Quaker insurgents would a great deal rather have their city a part of Orange county than a part of Los Angeles county-city.

Deputy District Attorney Walter Eden has agreed to address the Brea associated meeting on the legal aspects of the case.

Secretary Metzgar of the Associated today sent out notices of the meeting. Albert Launer, secretary of the Brea chamber, is the one who will be notified of the number of plates for the banquet to be set for the visitors from the various sections of the county.

AT THE COURTHOUSE SAYS HUSBAND RESPONSIBLE FOR INJURIES

Answer In Damage Suit Alleges J. T. Flood While Intoxicated Caused Crash

Today the W. D. Head Drilling Company of San Francisco struck back hard against the demand of Mrs. Mary A. Flood for $10,110 damages. The complaint alleged that an automobile in which Mrs. Flood was riding on January 22, 1916, near Oleo in the oil fields of this county, was struck by a truck of the Head Drilling Company, with the result that Mrs. Flood was thrown and severely injured, one leg being torn and one knee sprained.

The answer declares that Mrs. Flood's husband, J. T. Flood, was responsible for the accident. It is alleged that Flood was under the influence of liquor, and was driving his automobile on the left side of the road when the truck of the Head company approached and collided with the automobile. Meserve and Meserve of Los Angeles are attorneys for the defendant.

Raise of Capital

Certificates have been filed showing that the Foothill Groves of Yorba Linda has raised its capital stock from $10,000 to $30,000. The cooperative association took this step several months ago so that it could get money with which to build a packing house and for other expense.

it became known that he had violated his parole, Sheriff Jackson spent considerable time and money in an effort to locate him. When he was located at Boulder Deputy Sheriff Murray was sent for him. Yesterday Judge Thomas received a telegram from Governor Carlson suggesting that Sharp be allowed to remain in Boulder with his three children and aged parents, who need his assistance, and Judge Thomas acquiesced and moderated the terms of the parole. However, Sharp must not leave Boulder county.

Sharp's mother has written Judge Thomas several letters in which she implored the judge to permit her son to remain there.

Church Gets $200

The will of Mrs. Martha Runyan of Santa Ana has been filed for probate by Attorney W. F. Heathman. Mrs. Lydia Baker being the petitioner for letters. The will, written on March 23, 1916, leaves $10 to each of the following: Maryette Rosenkrans, Martha Fullinwider, Fannie L. Jones, Forrest Smith and Marie Ross. The sum of $200 is left to the First Baptist church of Santa Ana. A grandson, Clark E. Baker, is to receive $500. The remainder of the estate is to go to a daughter, Mrs. Baker, the petitioner. The estate is valued at $7300.

For Administration

Louis M. Timmons of Los Angeles has asked for letters of administration upon the estate of his father, L. D. Timmons, who died on June 1. The estate is valued at $17,000. The widow and several other heirs live at Anaheim. Leonard Evans is attorney for the petitioner.

Claim Turned Down

This morning Judge West disallowed the claim of Jane D. Holt for $200 for nursing George H. Lawrence. Lawrence died in Santa Ana in December, 1914. His will provided that should his daughters, Jessie and Nellie, whom he had not seen for many years, be located, they should get half of his estate, which was valued at $4400. A year was given for the search. That year is up and the daughters have not been located. Today Attorney Clyde Bishop produced an advertisement that had been inserted in a paper at Granada, Colo., where the daughters once lived. The advertisement produced no result. The will provided that in case the daughters were not located the estate should go to Jane D. Holt and Hattie McCoy. Hattie McCoy would not O.K. Mrs. Holt's claim for $200. On the hearing this morning Judge West ordered that it be not paid. Mrs. McCoy took the ground that the provision for Mrs. Holt in the will was meant as compensation for her care of Lawrence.

Court Orders

This morning the contest for the guardianship of Mrs. Martha Shaffer Vaughan was continued to July 6.

The guardianship matter of Grace R. and Gladys C. Cooper, minors, with Minnie Cooper as guardian, was transferred to Riverside county.

Laura E. Alexander was appointed guardian of Mrs. Mary C. Wightman of Garden Grove.

A final decree of divorce was granted James M. Sylvas against Nora Sylvas.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT CARBURETOR THEFT CHARGE IS BROUGHT

Germain Company Subject of Complaint on a Short Weight Accusation

In a complaint sworn to here, U. L. Robinson of Newport Beach is accused of stealing a $20 carburetor from Fred H. Sicker and D. A. Ward of Newport Beach on March 1. Robinson gave bond of $100 with Henry A. Robinson and Glenn Helms as sureties for his appearance before Justice Cox on June 29.

Transferred Here

On the ground that Justice Goepfer of Newport Beach had acted as an adviser to one of the litigants, the civil action of Howard Lydecker against Catherine A. McKenna and E. L. Howell has been transferred from Newport Beach township to Santa Ana township. Lydecker is suing for $133 for repairing the launch Arrow. Mrs. McKenna and Howell have conspired together to get possession of the boat.

Charges Short Weight

County Sealer George McPhee has sworn to a complaint charging the Germain Seed and Plant Company of Los Angeles with selling short weight orange seed to M. C. Cole. McPhee has repeatedly warned the Germain company that orange seed must be sold by dry measure, not liquid measure.

For Non-Support

A complaint charging Jules Morel with non-support has been sworn to by Dorcas Morel.

LOOKS AS THOUGH CONDEMNATION FOR ROAD RIGHT COMING

This afternoon the Board of Supervisors is holding a conference with Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Beebe of Anaheim relative to securing a right of way across the Beebe ranch in the Santa Ana canyon for the canyon road. The viewers recommended that $67.30 be paid for the right of way. The owners ask $750 and also a right of way from the S. A. V. I. Company, which may cost another $750. Supervisor Stuck said the county would proceed to condemn before it would pay the amount asked.

ASKS ANAHEIM TO STOP SALE OF BOOZE TO MEXS

City Trustees of Mother Colony Promise to Caution Liquor Men There

Last night Sheriff Jackson went to Anaheim and asked the city trustees of that place to pass an ordinance prohibiting the sale of liquor to Mexicans. He stated that San Bernardino had passed such an ordinance and was enforcing it strictly.

The Anaheim board stated that they did not believe that such an ordinance could be legally passed. The trustees said that they would caution the Anaheim liquor men against selling to Mexicans.

Jackson then asked that the sale of liquor by wholesalers to Mexicans be stopped, as Mexicans might take away a lot of liquor, and a crowd of intoxicated Mexicans might start a lot of trouble.

The sheriff is having 250 posters printed in Spanish. These will be placed among Mexicans through the county. In these statements the sheriff assures the Mexicans that they will be protected, and that all they need to do to keep out of trouble is to obey the laws of this country.

ENGINEER COMPANY IS PLAN IN ANGEL CITY

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—The organization of a company of engineers for military duty in the event of an invasion of Mexico was started last night by E. L. Swaine of 1445 Woolsey avenue. Headquarters of the company will be at the Los Angeles County Club, 125 Temple street. It is the intention to recruit the company to the minimum strength of 113 men and officers. Swaine said that Adjutant General Thomas had assured him that he felt sure the company's services would be accepted.

Mr. Swaine last night urged that all mining, electrical, civil, chemical and mechanical engineers, as well as mechanics who wished to join the battalion meet him at noon today at 125 Temple street.

Newport Bay Is Key to County's Future Growth

NEWPORT HARBOR DEVELOPMENT ASSURED

Project, Well Under Way, Will Prove a Boon to Orange and Riverside Counties

OF GREAT COMMERCIAL VALUE

Outline of Growth and Possibilities of the Harbor
Project

In order to solidify the various property interests and bring about a united endeavor to develop the natural resources of the Bay, the sections of Newport, East Newport, Balboa and West Newport were incorporated in 1906 under the corporate name of the City of Newport Beach.

The formation of the Newport Beach
Chamber of Commerce, with the slogan
"The Development of Newport Harbor," marks the beginning of active and intelligent work to secure harbor development.

CONGRESSIONAL APPROPRIA-TION FOR SURVEY

Through the efforts of the Townsend-Damon interests of West Newport, the East Newport Town Company of East Newport, and the Newport Bay Investment Company of Balboa, a federal appropriation of $2,500 was secured from Congress in 1911 for a survey of the Bay and an estimate of the cost of the construction of jetties.

HARBOR LINES
Realizing the futility of securing immediate aid from the Government without first beginning "at Jerusalem," determined efforts were made to secure the approval of fixed harbor lines along which a harbor might be made and docks and wharfage provided for.
A GRANT FROM

THE IRVINE RANCH
For a number of years a futile effort was made to secure from the Irvine Ranch Company a grant of a free strip of land lying to the north and east of the city proper for the purpose of city wharfage.

After years of parleys and dicker-ings, the Irvine Company at length were ready to convey a 1,500-foot strip, 250 feet in depth, for this purpose.
When the time arrived, however, to "get down to cases" the Ranch Company displayed extreme sagacity in hedging the proposition about with all manner of impossible conditions, so that further negotiations were deemed inadvisable and the matter was abruptly broken off.

$10,000 FROM ORANGE COUNTY FOR INVESTIGATION

In October, 1915, one of the first tangible steps was taken to secure a harbor at Newport Bay when the Board of Supervisors of Orange County in fixing the tax levy, in response to a petition containing more than the requisite amount of electors and property holders, added the sum of $10, 000 to the budget for the purpose of investigating the possibilities of making a harbor out of Newport Bay. Accordingly five representative men from the County were appointed to supervise the work, and under their able direction, supervised by a retired Government Engineer, painstaking and detailed experiments were carried out and the necessary data secured. The report of this committee in a nutshell established scientifically and impartially two cardinal facts:

(a) A 700-foot channel, 40 feet in depth could easily be made at low cost from the entrance of the Bay to Newport and Port Orange, (the Old Santa Ana Landing.)

(b) The speed of the bottom currents was more than ample to maintain the dredged area from filling up owing to the enormity of the tidal prism, far greater than either San Pedro or San Diego Bays.

APPROVAL OF HARBOR
LINES BY HOUSE

A few months ago the House approved the harbor lines and accepted the map showing the proposed harbor development. This recognition was a decided step in the right direction and means that the Government is watching developments at Newport.

CITY BOND ELECTION FOR JETTY WALL CONSTRUCTION

The second actual step toward the making of the harbor was taken on June 12, 1916, when the Board of Trustees of Newport instructed the City Attorney to prepare the call for the municipal bond election to provide funds in the sum of $100,000 for the construction of a jetty wall and a dredged channel from Newport to Balboa.

NEWBERT PROTECTION DISTRICT
BONDS FOR SANTA ANA RIVER

The only disturbing influence toward the building of a perfect harbor will be eliminated by the Newbert Protection District by either voting bonds or levying a tax for the construction of a new outlet to the Santa Ana River, thus relieving the Bay of the thousands of tons of silt that have hitherto been deposited by the action of the river. This will place the Bay within the practical possibility of federal appropriation.

ELECTION JUNE 27 TO BRING BALBOA ISLAND INTO CITY

The coming election of June 27 will bring Balboa Island into the municipality, thus removing the last outlying territory contiguous to the City of Newport.

COMBINED EFFORT OF INDIVIDUALS

In all the long fight that has been waged during the past ten years there has been in the hearts of the staunch few no reasonable doubt of the ultimate success of the harbor project.
There have been and still are a few "Doubting Thomases," who have stood by, hammer in hand, to throw every possible obstacle in the wheels of progress that lay within their power, to daunt the work of the harbor project. And yet today such creatures are scarce—conspicuous, thank God, by their absence, and, though at variance upon many other subjects of municipal betterment, all Newport stands as one man on the jetty project.
Every sane individual realizes that the future of this community lies in the development of her harbor. By continued and untiring effort of the much or little of each individual toward the making of the most of this great gift of God to the County of Orange will Newport Harbor finally become the greatest asset Orange County possesses.

NEWPORT BEACH BUSINESS PLACES

There are a number of attractions at Newport proper. The most important, next to fishing, is probably the bath-house, which contains 212 rooms and is large enough to accommodate 700 bathers. The quiet, gentle sloping surf, minus an uncourty, keeps the bath-house pretty well filled in season. Lew Wallace and J. J.
Schnitker are owners of the bath-house.

THE MERCHANTS

The First National Bank, located at the water front and housed in a fine brick block, is a solid institution. It was established in 1906 with a capital of $25,000. Its surplus and undivided profits are $3500. 4 per cent is paid on savings and time deposits.

In addition to doing a general banking business the First National Bank of Newport has a department of insurance, escrow facilities, notary public and the like. Legal papers are drawn and deals consummated.

Mr. Lew H. Wallace, the president, is about the most popular man at Newport. Not because he handles large sums of money, but because he is just naturally a likeable gentleman.
Lew is known all over Orange county for his persistent smile and his pleasant, inviting method of doing business.

With him are associated W. K. Parkinson, vice president; Max R. Wallace, cashier; and W. S. Hooper, Ed.
H. Wallace and C. H. Way, directors.

BEACH COMFORTS

Mr. J. J. Schnitker is the leading druggist at Newport. The up-to-date building in which his store is located was built and is owned by him. He carries a complete line of drugs and beach comforts for milady's sun-burned face and neck.

The drug store is an up-to-the-minute pharmacy, has a first class soda fountain and an excellent line of confectionery in addition to kodak supplies and the like.

Mr. Schnitker is a specialist at filling prescriptions.

cars, and runs an auto delivery in conjunction with its place.

THE LUMBER MILL

Eleven years ago W. W. Crosier established the Newport Beach Lumber Company, which is the first industry you pass as you enter Newport proper. Mr. Crosier is consequently a man of wide experience in the mill and lumber business.

There is no need to travel elsewhere for lumber if the building of a beach home is contemplated. The Newport Beach Lumber Company are well stocked with all that the builder requires, including cement, brick, doors, sash, shakes, shingles, lath, moulding and the heavier materials.

Incidentally Mr. Crosier is the type of man folk like to do business with.

THINGS TO EAT

Wm. O'Meara's store is all that a bake shop should be, neat and appetizing in appearance, and the quality of the goods are first rate. A confectionery store is also a part of O'Meara's Bakery.

The apartments above Mr. O'Meara's store are also owned and operated by him.

GROCERIES

M. Ferdinandusse may be a long name but it is entirely in keeping with the "long" stock of groceries handled at this gentleman's store, who has a fine little place, also off the ocean front near the bank. Mr.
Ferdinandusse carries a full line of good things to eat from groceries to hams and bacon.

The territory now under the equality regime embraces 5,387,000 square miles and a population of more than 28,000,000. In some of these communities women have been voting for more than forty-five years.

Vital Facts Concerning Possibilities at Newport

That most people of Santa Ana and Orange County, not to mention those of Riverside and San Bernardino Counties, do not comprehend the enormity of the natural resources at Newport Bay and the direct benefits accruing therefrom if developed, is certain.

Indeed the tremendous scope of the Bay as a commercial and pleasure harbor is little understood by even men of foresight.

Here are a few facts unknown to most people:

Newport Bay from the inlet to the inner lake has enough water, both in depth and width, for a boat to travel seven miles in a single direction.

From the inner lake to the city limits of Santa Ana it is but six miles.
Think of it! Santa Ana is only six miles from the ocean.

Abbott Kinney, the promoter of Venice, while viewing Newport Bay from a bluff, not long ago, said:

"Nature has given you what it has cost more than a million dollars for us to make at Venice."

Santa Ana is the only city in Southern California with an undeveloped harbor at its door, the development of which would make it possible for her to become the third largest city on the Southwest Coast.

Newport Bay is a natural harbor—a gift of God—and therefore vastly superior to man-made harbors. It is the logical shipping outlet for Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino County products.

NATURE'S GIFT—A RICH ONE— NEEDS ONLY TO BE DEVELOPED

HARBOR IS NEAR POSSIBILITY

Important Work, If Carried Out, Would Mean Much to Three Counties—
Other Attractions at Newport Beach and Balboa

BY C. JULIEN KADAU

If one were to travel many miles and search the entire coast range from Lower California to upper Oregon no more delightful, enchanting bit of ocean-kissed shore-line, cavernous or gentle sloping, could be found than that immediately surrounding Newport Bay.

The locality, extending from West Newport to Balboa Palisades, formerly Corona del Mar—Crown of the Sea—is now legally known as the City of Newport Beach. The view of the Bay and Rocky Point from the rising bluff of the Palisades is not surpassed in all California.

Northward are the slopes and rounding outlines of the gentle foothills; gradually they become more massive until seen to be but the feet of the high and majestic snow-crowned Sierras in the far distance. To the westward is the soft-hued—or brilliant white-capped (as the case may be)—ocean. Southward are entrancing Laguna and Arch Beaches with San Juan Point a faint, gray outline beyond.

Just before us to the eastward are the still waters of Newport Bay, and, further inland, the rich agricultural section of Newport Heights.

THE FOUNDING OF NEWPORT

A little more than half a century ago the ocean held undisputed sway over the peninsula upon which the townships of West Newport, Newport, East Newport and Balboa now stand. The high bluffs of the then San Joaquin Rancho were the only marks of the shore line. There was in 1847 no harbor—no Newport Bay. But with the rainstorms of '48 and '49 in the San Bernardinos came a change. The volume of storm water overswelled the Santa Ana River and the swift currents were forced to find a new outlet in their rush to the sea. The Santa Ana left its old outlet at Alamitos Bay and formed a new one at Newport. This has since been called "An act of God," for, year by year, the new river's outlet grew until it formed Newport Bay and made beautiful Balboa Island possible.

THE HUNTER'S PART

For some years afterward the new bay was known as Newport Marshes and became the nesting place of wild ducks and sea fowl—a haven for the hunter.

Tents were thrown up, and later a few small cottages erected by the hunters and their friends.

COMMERCIALISM AWAKES

Among the hunters were men of business foresight. The commercial possibilities of the bay in the shape of a harbor became apparent to them. An ocean wharf and a landing warehouse were constructed at what is today called Port Orange; and small shipping craft soon discharged their cargoes, as the records of Santa Ana papers, published thirty years ago, will indicate.
The railroad from Santa Ana to Newport was built at the same time and the outlook for Newport Bay as Southern California's harbor appeared to be bright.

A CHANGE

A few years afterward began the development of San Pedro Harbor.
Supported by the capital and influence of the Government as well as private individuals, the new harbor grew. Larger vessels could be accommodated there, which meant freight could be carried at smaller rates and at less risk.
Thus San Pedro outgrew Newport.

Newport then appealed to a certain realty organization as having the basis of a summer resort. Residential development began at once and the commercial phase was gradually lessened.

WHERE RESIDENCES WERE FIRST BUILT

East Newport, the center of the sandspit and midway between Newport and Balboa, was settled by people from Orange and Riverside Counties.
The building of the Pacific Electric from Los Angeles to Newport followed, which later was extended to East Newport.

The attractions which make seaside resorts popular were not long becoming apparent to visitors, and the development speedily extended eastward and southward. The advent of a few houses to the southward and eastward proclaimed the arrival of Balboa.

A few years ago saw the incorporation of the four townships, West Newport, Newport, East Newport and Balboa and the City of Newport Beach became a reality.

TODAY

Thus the City of Newport Beach has grown to its present population of 15,000, which, during the summer, is swelled to 15,000.

The City Hall, the Bank, the Lumber Yards and the terminus of the Santa Ana steam road are located at Newport. A bath house, dance hall and large hotel were constructed a few years ago and are largely patronized by outsiders during the summer season. The surf here is famed for its safety.

EAST NEWPORT AND BALBOA

East Newport is primarily a residence section. Among other homes is that of the late Madame Modjeska. It was here that the famed dramatic celebrity passed away. It is well nigh an ideal seaside section.

Balboa is a perfect combination of amusement, residence and business section. The business and apartment houses have an architectural arrangement and a uniform layout that is decidedly pleasing. They are at once attractive and convenient.

CHARMS OF BALBOA

The bay at Balboa is easily the most enjoyable feature. Here it is made use of for pleasure and enjoyment to a larger extent than elsewhere, though not nearly to its fullest.

Among the attractions on the bay front is the Balboa Pavilion—a fairy place, in fact a city of pleasures and conveniences within itself. It stands at the bay foot of the business section. In it you will find a bath house, dancing floor, roof garden, ping pong and box ball alleys, eating place, confectionery, peanuts and popcorn, a post office and express station.

On the lower floor and extending out into the water is the Ferry Station, from which boats to Balboa Island and Balboa Palisades are taken. Pleasure launches, canoes and all water craft known to be of use for enjoyment purposes will be found available at the Balboa Pavilion Landing.

Further along the bay front are other marine stations, from which large excursion boats, row boats, motor boats and the like travel the beautiful still waters.

SPECIAL AMUSEMENT ATTRACTIONS

The summer pleasures offered at Balboa are famed throughout the southland. Those who in past seasons have stood on the water's front and beheld the illuminated water carnival as the brilliantly lighted and decorated boats glided along the bay in procession, will understand what I mean.

And what is more delightful on a pressing summer's day than to skim over the still waters of Balboa in a canoe or launch? Or to join one of the jolly excursion parties, or bathe in the surf?

BALBOA ISLAND

Directly across the channel is Balboa Island; fashioned by the promoter into one of the beauty spots of the bay, indeed, one of the beauty spots of Southern California. The palace of W. S. Collins with its concrete walls is known far and wide.

BALBOA PALISADES

Upon the mesa southeastward is Corona del Mar—Balboa Palisades. I have already made an attempt to describe the view from this point.

A number of handsome dwellings and a tavern, the equal of the finest American hotels, have been erected here, the latter having a national reputation and being well filled with tourists the year round. Balboa Palisades is a tract similar to Arch Beach, a place for those who love nature at its best. It is, in addition, a garden spot.

FISHING

It would not be altogether appropriate to pass over the fishing advantages, for Newport attracts more fishermen in one week than any other beach or pier in all Southern California in thirty days. If it is deep sea fishing you prefer, you can have it here at its best. Or if you want it out a ways in a boat you can have that, and be gratified as you probably have not been elsewhere on the coast. And if you must have it rod and reel style you can get it "a plenty" in the surf at Newport.

RESUME

Looking down over the bay from one of the bluffs at Balboa Palisades, the possibilities of harbor development unfold themselves. Here lies the commercial future of several counties, with greatest benefit accruing to the county in which Newport Harbor is located—Orange. Newport Bay has well been called "A Gift of God." One cannot help but feel that to permit the possibilities here to lie dormant and undeveloped is little short of a "felony" against nature. The wealth that would come to Southern California and to our county in particular is inestimable.

But there is little danger of Newport Bay going on very long undeveloped. Indeed much has been done toward realizing the harbor project. The business men of the entire county have been stirred over the question and are ready to do their share just as soon as the City of Newport Beach completes the initial work. This is already under way; and Newport Bay is an assured harbor.

WHAT IS PROPOSED

A vast amount of preliminary work has been accomplished. Some little time ago data was secured from which it was ascertained that a commercial harbor of ample depth at Newport Bay was both feasible and practicable from every standpoint.

The project, now about ready to take definite form, includes not only the development of the proposed harbor, but also the conservation of waters from the Santa Ana River in its travels through three counties.

Last October the Board of Supervisors of Orange County appointed a Board of Harbor Commissioners to draw plans for the coming harbor at the county's seaboard. Their investigations resulted in the further appointment of Captain Charles T. Leeds, who carried on a detailed investigation of materials underlying Newport Bay.

This work is under way. Though, like other cities with similar possibilities, Newport Beach has had many obstacles to overcome in the march for municipal advancement. But progress is well in hand.

THE OBSTACLES

In the building of the harbor at Newport Bay there are two obstacles to overcome. First, the bar that lies across the entrance, and, second, the control of the Santa Ana River.

The remedy for the first lies in the building of jetties across the inland by the construction of two walls of rock and cement. The remedy for the second must be solved as follows:

During the storms of last winter the Santa Ana River broke its course and opened up a new outlet near Huntington Beach. This relieved Newport Bay of the annual cargoes of silt and sediment washed down from the hills. To insure the permanence of this a bond or tax issue will have to be passed by the people of the Newport Protection District, the money to be spent in cutting a straight channel into the sea and further protecting the outlet from the ocean's waves.

THE PLEASURE PHASE

Aside from the commercial possibilities Newport Bay presents an inviting opportunity for a pleasure harbor, around which could be built a resort the equal of any in the known world. The scenic charms immediately surrounding it would be an asset unsurpassed and the inner lake, six miles from the inlet, could easily be transformed into an aquatic bay, a water playground for all Southern California.

Truly nature has been kind to Newport.

Let Newport and Orange County not be neglectful and unmindful of this kindness.

APARTMENTS ARE ATTRACTIVE

There are a great number of apartment houses at Newport and Balboa, ranging from moderate priced rooming houses to elaborate apartments with hot and cold baths and all conveniences known.

The largest apartments are probably the Portland, which are operated by Mrs. J. C. Cooley, who is agent for Menefee & Jones, the owners of the block.

The Portland apartments and rooms occupy two buildings. The apartments are in one and the rooms in another directly across the street. Quite a few of the rooms in both cases overlook the bay. They are ideally managed by Mrs. Cooley, who is the most delightful of women. She is a regular magnet and makes a chum of her guests in shorter time than sweethearts make lovers.

Friendship is the basis of service at Mrs. Cooley's Portland apartments.

At Newport proper there are two very commendable apartment houses. The largest are the Barker and O'Meara apartments on the ocean front. The rooms are all bright and airy outside apartments. The building is new and everything about the apartments is new. The prices are reasonable and the location, overlooking the ocean, is all that could be desired in the hot summer time.

Another very neat and attractive place is that run by Mrs. Sharps, called the May Apartments. You pass them just as soon as you enter Newport proper. The rooms are furnished for housekeeping privileges. Electric light, gas, running water and all the conveniences required are a part of the May Apartments.

They are just one block from the ocean.

TO RETURN TO BALBOA

There are several other places. Each of them are distinctive. In order, they are the Bungalow Court Apartments, the De Aro Villa Apartments and the Balboa Apartments.

The Bungalow Apartments are very odd in construction. We shall not attempt to describe their architectural arrangement, but rather concern ourselves with the conveniences offered by Mr. Houghtaling, who runs them.

One is at once attracted to the neat appearance of the Bungalow Court, which is located a short distance east of Main street.

The two and three room apartments are equipped with disappearing beds, kitchenette, etc. All in all the Bungalow Apartments present an inviting appearance of comfort, coziness and neatness.

The De Aro Villa Apartments just beyond the Bungalow Court Apartments, are very well arranged and well managed. Mrs. Ora Culp Kelly is an ideal apartment house manager.

There is a pergola at the De Arc Villa, an exceedingly popular place in the summer. It is on the bay side, which offers a protection to those who like to sit outdoors without exposing themselves too much to the raw ocean winds.

Dressing rooms, showers and kitchenettes are other features at the De Arc Villa Apartments.

Then there are the Balboa Apartments, managed by mother M. P. Smart. They are located on Main and the bay. Most of the apartments overlook the bay, which makes them much sought after by tourists. The rooms are among the best furnished at Balboa. Hot and cold water baths are a feature.

Housekeeping privileges may also be had at the Balboa Apartments.

FERRY BOATS ON NEWPORT BAY

Ferry boats at Newport Bay, leaving from Balboa, take one across the bay and to Balboa Palisades for the small sum of twenty-five cents. Commutation tickets are sold whereby the holder may travel over the water for as little as five cents. This arrangement is a convenient one and makes it possible for summer visitors to spend much of their vacation on the refreshing still waters.

It is also an inducement to put up camp on Balboa Island. Visitors find it exceedingly pleasurable to come over from the island or from the Palisades or golf course and lunch in the attractive eating places at Balboa.

NATURAL GAS TO BE WELCOMED BY NEWPORT BEACH

Municipal ownership of public utilities such as water, gas and electric light are a part of Newport Beach.

The drinking water is as pure as the purest, the city maintains its own wells, pumping plant and pipe lines. This service would be a credit to a city several times the size of Newport.

ELECTRIC LIGHT

The city has its own distributing system and pole lines. Also its own ornamental street lighting system. The electricity is furnished under long term contract by the Pacific Light and Power Company.

THE GAS QUESTION

The city has but recently voted bonds for a distributing system for natural gas. It now owns its own mains and laterals within the corporate limits. Until the natural gas is turned into the mains the city is under contract to purchase artificial gas from the old West Coast Gas Company.

The coming of natural gas is an advent the city has been hoping and praying for. It will be the most welcome thing the city of Newport Beach has had in years.

The natural supply is promised in a few weeks.

The scale of prices for natural gas are as follows:

5,000 cubic feet or under, $1.00 per 1,000,

Over 5,000 to 10,000 cubic feet, 90c per 1,000.

Over 10,000 to 25,000 cubic feet, 80c per 1,000.

Over 25,000 cubic feet, 60c per 1,000. Minimum rate, 50c.

It is more convenient for the city to make connections while the mains are being laid. Those wishing natural municipal gas will confer a favor by notifying the members of the Gas Committee, Trustees H. A. Robinson or J. C. McCain.

TWO FIRE TRUCKS

The city has recently purchased two auto chemical fire trucks and has a well equipped and highly efficient fire department. There are many cities much larger than Newport who have only one fire truck.

NEW BATH HOUSE

Mr. H. H. Rose is engaged in building a bath house on the ocean front at Balboa. The bath house when completed will contain 120 rooms and will be thoroughly modern throughout. Mr. Rose contemplates building a first-class hotel in the near future on a site yet to be selected. Mr. Rose built the famous Glenwood Hotel at Riverside.

GOLF COURSE ONE OF THE BEST

The Orange County Country Club has one of the finest 18-hole golf courses in Southern California. It is located on the inland side of the bay. The grounds may be reached either by auto or by boat across the water. Many visit the golf course by way of Balboa simply for the pleasure of crossing the bay.

The rules of the course are as follows:

U. S. G. A. rules govern all play. Out of bounds—Outside the white stakes on numbers 4, 5, 6, 7, 13, 15—inside tennis court.

Ball against fence on outside may be moved a club's length without penalty.

Ball may be lifted a club's length from any bank around a green or canyon without penalty.

Ball lying behind tee, sand box, bench or direction flag may be moved to allow play but not nearer the hole without penalty.

All ditches and canyons to be played as water hazards.

Ball lying in washouts, hoof prints, wheel tracks and scrapes and burrows of animals on Fairway may be lifted and dropped without penalty.

Ball in bad lie between white stakes on number 2 and 15 Fairways may be lifted and dropped for lie without penalty.

NEWPORT HARBOR AS T. B. TALBERT VIEWS IT

The remarks made by T. B. Talbert, chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Orange County, on the harbor development at Newport are well worth repeating in this special Newport Beach boost number.

They follow:
"We hope to see, and believe we will see, more millions established around Newport Bay within the next few years in the way of industries and commercial enterprises than now exist in the entire part of Orange County, some fifty-four millions. We would not have to do a great deal to accomplish that. If such a condition could be brought about, it certainly would be worth while to concentrate and put forth the most conscientious effort.

"If we are assured that we can create fifty millions of business around Newport Harbor by spending one million as a starter, would it not be good business? Would you not be willing to invest one million dollars if you knew you were going to create fifty million dollars worth of business by so doing?"

"We are equipped with abundance of oil, natural gas, good roads, good railroad transportation, rich soil production, abundance of fine water, an elegant climate and a natural bay for harbor development. Why not, then, utilize and take advantage of our natural resources?"

"If we work with these ends as our ambition, Orange County will be 1,000 per cent ahead in not many years. It is up to us and we will be just whatever our people decide we should be."

NEWPORT GOES DRY ON JULY TENTH

Now that Newport Beach joins the ranks of the dry forces, a great future awaits it. There are many business men at Newport and Balboa who are willing to go on record as stating that the growth of Newport Beach has been hindered the past two years because the citizens permitted the saloon interests to come in.

On July tenth, when the doors will close on the saloon for all time, there will be much rejoicing in Newport.

SING SING BALL FAN CALLS UMPIRE ROBBER

OSSING, N. Y.—During the baseball game in Sing Sing prison yard, where 500 New York society women and an equal number of men saw the Mutual Welfare league team wallop the New York stock exchange team 9 to 7, a fan objected to a decision of the convict umpire by bawling: "Robber." The umpire walked over to the fan and said: "Don't get personal; this is only a friendly game."

STREET WORK AT EAST NEWPORT COMMENCES

Pleasures on the Bay. Ideal Location Is Attraction

CHOICE BIT OF PROPERTY

Still Water Bathing, Boating and Yachting, Features of Summer Season

East Newport is the residential section of the City of Newport Beach. It appeals to those who desire a seaside home and the advantages of still-water bathing. East Newport is far enough removed from the din of city life and possesses a peacefulness together with quiet amusement advantages such as bathing boating and fishing which a great many people prefer to the merry go round and roller coaster noises of resort beaches.

THE BAY

East Newport is one of the choice bits of beach residence property on the Southwest Coast. With the quiet waters of the bay on one side and the ocean on the other, it possesses the attractions of a home by the sea. It is a strip of land—almost an island—perhaps a mile long, and lies midway between Newport and Balboa.

The paramount attraction at East Newport is undoubtedly the glorious bay. There can be no question but that the scores of business, professional and artistic people who have built homes there did so because of the bay. The fact that most of the homes have been erected as near the bay as possible would seem to carry out this deduction. The bay has made of East Newport distinctly a home place, and will, when the ordered improvements and those contemplated are finished, become one of the favorite beach spots in Southern California.

NEW STREET WORK

The city recently ordered all street work, sidewalk and curbing constructed at East Newport. In all, this means the beautifying of nine blocks. With the operation of the city's gas plant in a few weeks, East Newport will leave nothing to be desired by the residents. Electric lights, pure drinking water, excellent service to Los Angeles and other points has been a part of East Newport for some time.

If the further improvements advocated by those directly and materially interested in this ideal little beach place become a reality, East Newport will, within two years, be the perfect beach city. East Newport has its municipal struggles nearly over with and should now go ahead with its improvements to a final stage. With the completion of street work it will have all that gives solid substance to a city, and it may safely be counted on to develop at a rapid pace.

PLEASURE

The greatest source of pleasure to be derived at East Newport is the boating on the still water bay. Next to it is still water bathing, and then surf bathing. A combination of bathing and boating is nearly an ideal one and each season attracts summer visitors by the thousands. There is but one other place in Southern California of which this is true. The quiet waters of East Newport Bay furnish an endless joy to the excursionist and the summer visitor.

East Newport is also station "A" of the South Coast Yacht Club, which has its own large and spacious building on the bay's edge. Many of the club races and social events are given here.

Yet another joy feature abounds at East Newport. The house in which you stay may overlook the blue Pacific with Catalina, the "Isle of Wonder," and San Clement in the distance. This is an advantage worth considering when you select your cottage or apartment this summer.

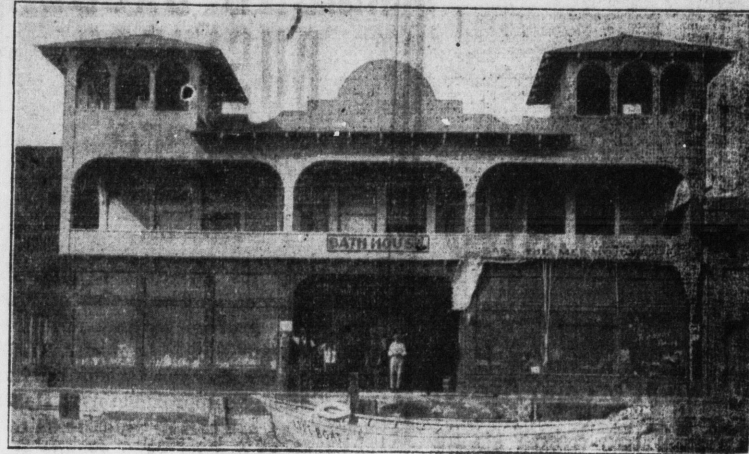

ACCOMMODATIONS

There are many cozy, comfortable apartments, rooming houses, bungalows, cottages and tents at East Newport. When you go there you will see the offices of the East Newport Town Company, the founders. In their place of business you will find listed the various cottages and houses which can be rented, as well as a few remaining unsold. Should you prefer to buy a lot and build, which, by the way, is a good deal cheaper in the long run, W. W. Wilson or R. P. Wilson are the people to call on.

The home builder will find East Newport especially attractive, both as to location and price of property. W. W. Wilson and R. P. Wilson are largely responsible for the improvements and the increase in population.

AMONG BALBOA BUSINESS HOUSES

Probably the largest merchant establishment at Balboa is that of Wilson Bros., who recently purchased the Collins Marine Supply Company. Their stores, shops and concessions on the bay occupy approximately 11,000 square feet, 105 feet of which is on the bay side, 50 feet on Palm avenue and 70 feet on Bay avenue.

Wilson Bros. have the largest garage at Balboa. They are the largest boat and launch builders, in addition to carrying a full stock of building material, paints, oils, electrical supplies, fishing tackle and sporting goods.

Both of the Wilson brothers left excellent positions to take their stand at Balboa. The huge possibilities attracted them and they are making extensive plans to branch out in every department and give to Newport one of the leading marine supply stations on the Pacific coast.

Boat building is the main business of Wilson Bros. They also rent boats of every description to pleasure and excursion parties and are prepared to arrange for trips to any part of the bay on short notice.

The Wilson brothers are a progressive pair. Just the sort of young business men who are up and doing things for their community every minute. When it comes to co-operating with the city in any undertaking which might in any way boost Newport they can be counted on as among the first to join and assist in making a success of the proposed plan.

"THE LIMIT"

Next to Wilson Bros. is the Jackson-Norton Garage and Machine Shop. Like their neighbors, Jackson and Norton are also in the boat building business. They have just completed a huge side-wheeler excursion boat, large enough to hold a party of 104 people. The name of this pleasure craft is "The Limit," which means that it is the largest excursion boat at Balboa and probably the largest that ever plied Newport Bay or belonged to Newport Bay.

"The Limit" will be personally conducted every Sunday evening with music an added attraction. The Sunday evening excursions are to be informal and everybody is invited, that is, everybody who has the price of a silver offering to pay for the gas with which to run "The Limit."

SWEETS

There are two confectionery stores at Balboa, both of them very attractive places. The oldest of the two places is Wilson's, on Main street, near the pavilion. The store was established in 1909. In reality, Wilson's is two stores, one-half of which is devoted to confectionery, a fine soda fountain and ice cream parlor, peanuts, popcorn, crackerjack and other numerous sweets, and the other half to kodak supplies, post cards, notions, magazines and newspapers, beach supplies and toys.

Mr. Geo. P. Wilson is a trustee of Newport and one of the live wires of the community. His store radiates with the spirit of progress.

The second confectionery store is Barker's Palace of Sweets, on the principal corner of Balboa, Ocean avenue and Main. Mr. Barker is evidently the happiest man in Balboa, at least his disposition indicates it. Business must be good at Barker's. It always is where people are greeted with a broad welcome. It does not matter if you call at Barker's to buy or to sell something, his manner is always cordial, and oftentimes hilariously happy.

In addition to a busy ice cream and confectionery stand Mr. Barker carries butter, eggs and milk. He also sells kodak films, stationery and newspapers.

PLACES TO EAT

If you were to ask anyone at Balboa to direct you to the best eating place, he would at once shout "Scully's Cafeteria on Palm street." Scully's is not only the best place at which to eat, but it is about as good a place as one could wish to eat outside of home.

The service at Scully's Palm Street Cafeteria is equal to the best in Los Angeles. The variety of food may not be so great but what you get to eat is better, and, for most part cooked and flavored to perfection.

For cleanliness and tasteful arrangement the place is a little gem. You are advised to eat at Scully's this summer. Special attention is given to delicatessen orders. "Leave your lunch basket at home," is the slogan at Scully's.

Mr. Scully also runs a quick lunch counter on the bay front, just off the pavilion. The waffles he turns out there have a reputation throughout Balboa. For a quick bite call at Scully's Quick Lunch Counter.

MEATS

The Balboa Meat Market on Palm street, is a very sanitary and up-to-date market. Theo. Neitz, the proprietor, has been in the meat business for thirty years; in Balboa for four. Mr. Neitz believes in advertising his city and is proud to be a citizen of Balboa. He carries a full line of fresh and smoked meats, fish and poultry.

GROCERIES

The largest grocery store at Balboa is that of Way & Driggers, who have a conspicuous location on the corner of Palm and Bay avenues. Their store is a general one and includes the following lines:

Groceries, fruits, hardware, notions, furnishings and shoes. In addition Way & Driggers are headquarters for ice.

FANCY BAKERY

McCain's Fancy Bakery is just what the name implies. The quality of baked goods turned out by Mr. McCain is indeed fancy; and so is his neat little store.

Located on Main street, a few paces from the pavilion, McCain's does a rushing business. In the summer season, when Balboa houses a vast herd of people and the housewife bakes no more than necessary, Mr. McCain is kept doubly busy. His store is a credit to all Newport.

Mr. McCain is also a city trustee.

PLUMBING

The big plumber of Balboa, as well as Newport, is Art L. Heard. He is known as the "summer plumber who stays in the winter," which indicates that Mr. Heard is kept busy both winter and summer. He is the type of hustler any community ought to be proud of. Success to Art L. Heard.

HARDWARE

S. Hill & Son, the largest hardware store in Santa Ana also do a large business at Newport. Their advertisement usually appears along with the merchants of Newport and Balboa.

POSTMASTER ASKS TO QUIT; REFUSED

MAUCH CHUNG, Pa.—Postmaster I. J. Ginder of Rockport, a short distance below White Haven, unless he is able to dispose of his office will meet with financial ruin. The cause of his trouble is due to the fact that the government will not allow Mr. Ginder to resign, although he is running in debt every day and will do so as long as he holds the position.

Unlike most all other postmasters who try to hold on to their appointments as long as they can, Mr. Ginder is trying his very best to get out, but the government will not consider his resignation so long as there is no successor. Civil service examinations have been held repeatedly for the express purpose of securing a postmaster, but there were no applicants.

BARKER'S Palace of Sweets

BALBOA

PAVILION IS THE BIG PLEASURE PALACE

The leading amusement and recreation center at Balboa is the Balboa Pavilion. Under the management of F. W. Beckwith it has become a veritable palace of pleasures.

Ten years ago Mr. Beckwith opened the pavilion. That was before Newport had a car line. The lumber to build the pavilion was floated down the bay.

The first Sunday the pavilion earned, or rather took in, $2.40 for Mr. Beckwith and his associates. Also on the same Sunday, two bathing suits valued at $2.75 per suit were stolen. Since then Balboa Pavilion has grown with leaps.

The building is two stories in height with a roof garden and pergola. The latter opens July 1. Tables are set about the roof garden, where guests are served with entertainment features as well as refreshments.

A TOUR

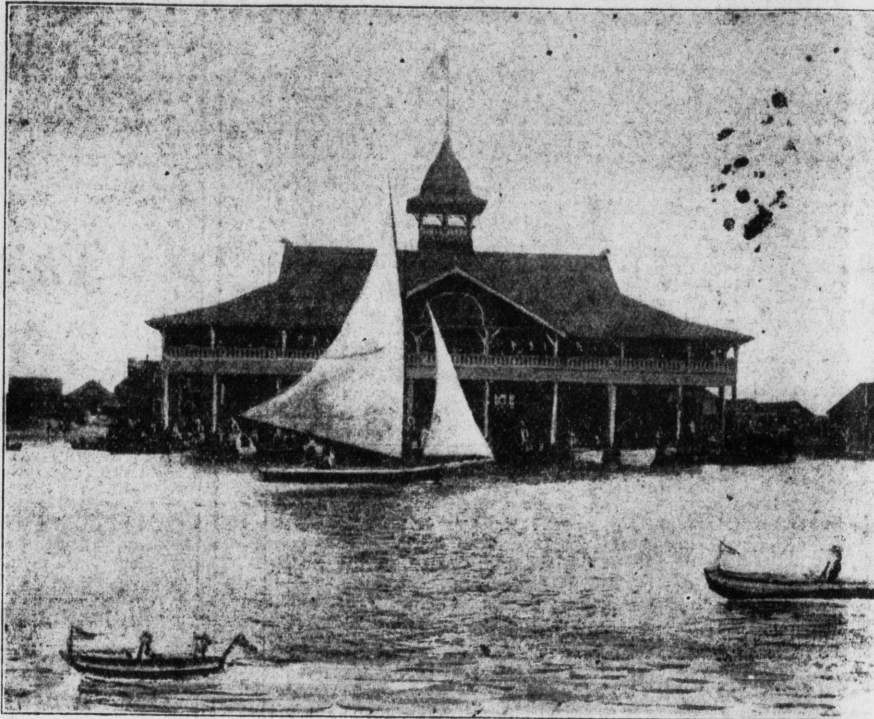

Beginning at the lower floor, which is also the boat landing station, you come first to a box ball alley. Just off it is the bathing suit and supply department. To the right is a Japanese ping pong booth where many little things may be purchased.

Returning to the left you come to a soda fountain, to the rear of which is a marine supply station. In the center of the lower floor is the boat landing station. Here ferry boats leave for Balboa Palisades, Balboa Island and for tours to any part of the bay.

Returning, you pass the comfort stations, telephone booths, confectionery, peanut and popcorn stand, then the express station and finally the post office.

The second floor contains one of the largest dancing floors in the southland. Decorated with palms and lanterns it is one of the main sources of entertainment. The best talent from Los Angeles furnishes the music and the floor is kept in good condition.

THE upper picture is that of the Balboa pavilion. The lower is the late Madame Modjeska's residence on Bay Island, East Newport.

Also on the second floor, is a light lunch counter and pergola.

The top of the pavilion is given over to a roof garden. It is lighted with Japanese lanterns.

The biggest attraction at the pavilion is, no doubt, the boat department. Excursion boats, sail boats, canoes, row boats, launches and all the boats known to be used for pleasure purposes are operated from the pavilion landing, and arrangements made for parties and carnivals.

It must also be mentioned that a free picnic grounds is run in conjunction with the pavilion. In fact there is no doubt but that many of the entertainment features have been omitted even now though we have taken every precaution to include all.

PERSONAL

The initial investment of the Balboa Pavilion was in the neighborhood of fourteen thousand dollars. What it is worth today as a business investment would be difficult to estimate. The legal and official name of the pavilion is the Balboa Land and Water Company, with F. W. Beckwith, J. P. Greely, E. J. Lewis and E. E. Richardson joint owners.

SOON TO OPEN TALBERT ROAD

Strike At San Pedro Causes Delay In Rebuilding Of a Dredger

TALBERT, June 22.—The concrete roads through Talbert, which were washed out during the floods last winter, were rebuilt and finished Wednesday. The road will be covered with water and dirt for about ten days and then it will be open for public traffic again.

The new steam clam-shell dredge of the Talbert Drainage District was unloaded at Huntington Beach Wednesday.

Mr. Bickmore, the field boss, and the officials of the American Sugar Beet Company, were looking over the beet fields of this vicinity Wednesday.

The rebuilding of the dredge for the Newbert Protection District has been delayed on account of the strike at San Pedro. The lumber was shipped there and had to be shipped back to Redondo to be unloaded.

Forty feet more of pipe has been added to the pipe that has been extended into the ocean by the Talbert Drainage District, and was completed Tuesday. The men started to work Monday morning at 2 o'clock while the tide was low.

Mrs. Mahoney and Mrs. Jansen of Santa Ana spent two days at the John Pope ranch this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clapp went to Laguna Beach last Thursday, returning to Santa Ana in time to enjoy the parade. They were guests that night at Mr. Clapp's brother's.

Mrs. E. Farnsworth spent the day with Mrs. C. F. Ward Tuesday.

Miss Vivian Stahl of Huntington Beach, was a week end visitor at the Gisher home.

Miss Alma Plavan and her cousin, Miss Florence Tourgin, enjoyed the day at Laguna Beach Sunday.

Henry Wheeler, who has been teaching high school in Needles, spent last week with Claud Swift at the Swift home. They went to Capistrano on Thursday, accompanied by Claud's mother and sister, to visit the Gus Jones family, returning Friday.

Mrs. Arnold Walker has returned from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hickox, who live at Elizabeth Lake. Mr. Hickox is farming there. His son, Ray Hickox, and family and his daughter and family and Mr. and Mrs. Morton are also living up there and are starting a summer resort, putting up tents and small houses near the lake. Bathing, fishing and rowing in the lake will be fine sport. Mr. Ray Hickox has a Kisselkar. He carries passengers to and from Los Angeles. After the grounds are finished Mrs. Hickox expects to have a store and post office there.

The remodeling of the Leo Borchard house has been completed and last Sunday a large number of old friends gathered there to enjoy with Mrs. Borchard, the conveniences of her new house.

Charley Borchard of Fairview, and Miss Caroline Handi of Oxnard, were married last Thursday morning at 8 o'clock at the Catholic church in Santa Ana, and motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Borchard of Talbert to enjoy an elaborate wedding breakfast. From there they went to San Diego on their honeymoon, returning Wednesday to their farm in Fairview, where they will make their future home. They were entertained for a while Wednesday night by a charivari crowd, consisting of sixteen autos loaded with jolly, noisy people, tin cans, bells and almost anything that would make a noise. The visitors gathered around the house with their musical instruments trying to bring forth the bride and groom, and at last found them sitting in their auto in the garage. Refreshments were served and they all departed happy.

Mrs. Herbert Ross moved Thursday to San Diego, where she will make her home.

Harry Harper and Gus George motored to Laguna on a fishing trip Sunday.

Mrs. A. Martel is on the sick list this week.

Miss Helen Jesse of Greenville is a visitor at the home of her cousin, Mrs. W. O. Ater, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Jesse and their son, Earl, visited Mrs. W. O. Ater Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Carney and daughter, accompanied by Miss Helen Jesse, motored to Seal Beach Sunday.

Freddie Hauptman of Oakland College, is spending his vacation with his aunt, Mrs. Leo Borchard.

Oscar Gillispie, who worked for S. E. Talbert about two years ago, returned from Imperial Valley Monday.

Frank Borchard and family, Hugo Lamb and family, Mrs. Heaston and Miss Grace Bradley went on a camping trip to San Juan Hot Springs Monday. They expect to stay about two weeks.

Walter Lamb and family motored to Pomona Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George of Santa Ana, Frank Burke and Stephen Fox motored to San Juan Capistrano Sunday.

Paul and Frank Planchan, Miss Helena Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Grisette and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Irwin were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Walker Sunday.

Mrs. Cris Hayes, who came here from Missouri about three months ago, started back last Wednesday. Her husband will go a few weeks later.

A. A. Willows and children spent the day in Seal Beach Sunday.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coerilla has been sick this week, but is improving.

Mrs. J. O. Harper and children, accompanied by Claire Wardlow, motored to Long Beach Sunday and spent the day.

Freddie Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Lee, is very ill this week.

W. J. Shrode of Long Beach, is visiting the Talbert ranch for a few days this week.

A social will be given at the Japanese hall Saturday, June 24, by the Queen Esther Circle, for the purpose of making a payment on the church piano. All the young ladies are requested to bring baskets with lunch for two, which will be sold. There will also be plenty of ice cream and cake, and a good program.

Miss Florence Palmer of Newport Beach, was a visitor at the home of Miss Mary Mueller Thursday.

Frank Cox of Los Angeles, spent the day with his father, J. H. Cox, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Walker enjoyed a chicken dinner at the home of C. F. Ward Wednesday evening.

MAN IDENTIFIED AS DEAD RETURNS ALMOST IN TIME FOR FUNERAL

BALTIMORE, Md. — Isaac Wolf came near seeing his finish—to be really more exact, his own funeral.

A black crepe hung from the doorbell of the house at 526 West Barre street and the funeral services were said over the body of a man identified as Isaac Wolf at the same moment that Wolf was walking around the streets of the city alive and well.

The mistaken burial was due to an incorrect identification of a body at the morgue made by Mrs. Sarah Jones, who thought the body to be that of her brother. She had it removed to her home and, after the funeral ceremony and the body had been buried in the family lot, and while her family sat in their mourning clothes and talked of her brother's death, Wolf himself walked into the house.

"It's like. He's come back!" Mrs. Jones cried out, when she saw him, and the next instant she fainted.

OLDEST REALTY OPERATORS

The oldest and principal realty operators at Newport, East Newport and Balboa are W. W. Wilson of the Newport Town Company and R. P. Wilson. Offices are maintained both at East Newport and Balboa.

Mr. W. W. Wilson established the first subdivision at the beach following Newport proper. He was responsible for getting the Pacific Electric to build its line into East Newport and also largely responsible for getting it into Newport proper.

His first subdivision consisted of some 500 lots. Practically all of the property was a residence section.

Mr. Wilson is in business at the same stand with the main office at East Newport and a branch at Balboa. He has property for rent as well as for sale. In fact there is more of it to be rented than there is to be purchased. The supply of choice residence lots was limited from the very beginning.

R. P. WILSON

Mr. Bob Wilson is a son of W. W. Wilson and has his office with his father's. He specializes in the selling and renting of furnished houses and attempts to impress upon prospective purchasers the advantages of buying a furnished house in preference to renting one. He has several good reasons for this:

It is first of all difficult to rent a house at Newport during the summer. Then, rents are naturally high, as they must be where the section of bay property is so limited.

Mr. Wilson sells furnished houses on terms.

Miss Ellen L. Spencer, although only twenty-three years of age, has been a telephone operator, stenographer, head of a department, correspondent, ad writer, traveling saleswoman, secretary, fiction editor for a publishing house, newspaper reporter, free lance writer, model for advertising photos and an authoress.

German textile experts have succeeded in treating wool yarns by a process similar to that of the mercerization of cotton, the wool being given a bath of bisulphate of soda at high temperature.

A CALIFORNIA WOMAN TESTIFIES.

Oakland, Cal.—"When I was a girl I suffered much. I saw an advertisement of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and took this for six months, which cured me. I also took it at the critical time of life and have given it to all three of my daughters. We always use the 'Golden Medical Discovery' when we need a tonic or to build up. I can heartily recommend Dr. Pierce's remedies for they have merit and can be relied upon."—Mrs. H. MEADE, 908 55th St.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a true friend to women in times of trial and at times of pain when the organs are not performing their functions. For headache, backache, hot flashes, catarrhal condition, bearing down sensation, mental depression, dizziness, fainting spells, lassitude and exhaustion, women should never fail to take this tried and true woman's medicine.

Prepared from nature's roots and herbs, it contains no alcohol or narcotic, nor any harmful ingredient. In either tablet or liquid form. Write Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., today. Get book on woman's diseases, sent free.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little Liver Pills. These tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules—the smallest and the easiest to take. One little "Pellet" for a laxative—three for a cathartic.

Questions of Sex?—Are fully and properly answered in The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D. It contains the knowledge a young man or woman, wife or daughter should have. 1008 pages with color plates, and bound in cloth. By mail, prepaid—on receipt of 3 dimes or stamps.

PALISADES ARE RESTRICTED BEACH LOTS

The finest bit of property in the vicinity of Newport Beach is that located on the bluff southeast of Balboa and known as Balboa Palisades, or probably better known as Corona del Mar.

The present owners, F. D. Cornell & Co., changed the name to Balboa Palisades so as to discontinue the confusion with Corona and Del Mar, two distinct cities, both located in California.

Balboa Palisades are reached either by auto or by crossing the bay by Palisades Ferry from Balboa Pavilion.

IMPROVEMENTS

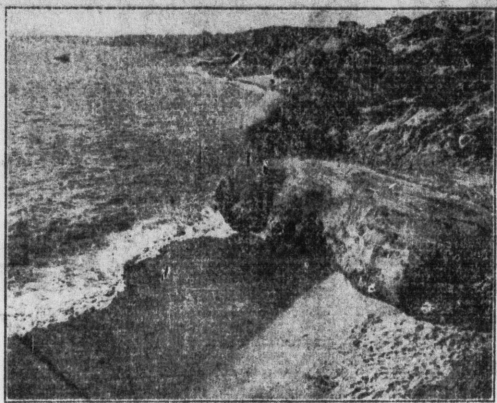

Improvements at Balboa Palisades are going on daily; and they are beautiful improvements. Over 6,000 trees and shrubs are being set out, and the flower decorations planned between curbing and those already set out about the Tavern and the Tavern Bungalows are done by a man who knows the value of artistic arrangement. A Japanese garden between the bungalow court is nearly half completed. It contains a rustic bridge, winding paths and quaint shrubbery.

RESTRICTIONS

Balboa Palisades lots are restricted; perhaps the only beach property claiming this. The least expensive residence permitted must cost $1,250. The homes constructed there now are among the finest at any beach place. You may be able to appreciate Balboa Palisades when you are informed that, from a scenic standpoint, it is the equal of Arch or Laguna Beach. The rocky coast line begins at a point just below the Palisades. The bluff here is probably higher than elsewhere varying from 80 to 125 feet and even more in certain places.

AT MOUTH OF BAY

Balboa Palisades are at the very mouth of Newport Bay where the proposed jetties are to be built. This fact alone makes property values high. There are altogether 1,800 lots.

WESTMINSTER NEWS LETTER

WESTMINSTER, June 22—A very interesting Endeavor rally was held here in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon. There were large delegations from the Alamitos Friends' church and Huntington Beach Christian Endeavor societies. The state president, Herbert P. Rankin, and county president, Mrs. H. P. Rankin, of Santa Ana, were present. Mr. Wells, who is connected with the Bible Institute, Los Angeles, and who was state C. E. president in 1911, gave an address. After a fifteen-minute song service, led by the chorister, Mr. Smith, Rev. W. T. Wardle gave the scripture reading followed by a five-minute talk emphasizing the power of God's word. Mrs. Mendenhall, pastor of the Alamitos Friends' church, gave a five-minute talk on the Social Committee. She said this committee usually consisted of the least spiritual members of the society, chosen for their ability to entertain. As the members of the social committee are the advance scouts of the society she thought they should be chosen for their spirituality, personality and energy.

The response of the Alamitos society was called for and the members rose and repeated the First Psalm in unison. The response from the Huntington Beach society was a song by the young men's quartet, accompanied on the organ by Miss Amy Helme.

The response from the Westminster society was "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."—II Tim. 2:15.

Mr. H. P. Rankin, state president, gave an address taking for his subject, "Efficient Leadership." He said that efficient leaders were hard to find and should be developed. The first qualification necessary is willingness to do one's best. A leader can be greatly encouraged by praising his efforts and he can improve by home study. Another great help is to send them to a state or county convention.

He closed with an appeal to take the call to leadership as an opportunity of service for the Master. Mr. Wells explained about the two excursions to the state convention at Stockton July 5 to 9, and the probable expense of each. He urged attendance at this convention and said he thought Christian Endeavor one of the best forces for good in the world, especially so in California.

He said the Endeavorers caught a vision at the state convention at Berkeley in 1906, where the immortal Tom Hannay was converted from a drunkard and afterward was the means of hundreds of conversions, and who has since laid down his life on the mission fields in Africa.

Mr. Wells said last year's convention theme was "Stewardship," and this year it is "Christ's Call to the Endeavorers," found in I Thess. 2:12: "That ye would walk worthy of God who has called you into His Kingdom and glory."

The rally closed with the mizpah benediction.

Mrs. H. Larter of Wintersburg, was surprised on Friday afternoon by a number of her friends coming in to help celebrate her birthday. A pleasant afternoon was spent. Refreshments of coffee and cake, brought by the guests, were served. Those present were: Mrs. J. F. Patterson, Mrs. W. T. Wardle, Mrs. R. E. Larter, Mrs. Orel Hare, Miss Viola Wright of Westminster, Mrs. Bert Gothard, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Hathaway, Mrs. S. G. Huff Wintersburg. The same teachers have been elected to teach for the coming year, but it is not yet certain whether all will accept.

Merton Hosack is building an addition to the cooking department of his lunch room, the baking business requiring more stove room.

E. G. Stone is at the Santa Ana hospital for a serious surgical operation. His son, Milton Stone of Pasadena, is staying with his mother during his father's absence.

Mrs. M. J. Larter in company with Mrs. J. Harrison, went to Los Angeles the first of the week to visit her daughter, Mrs. Griffith.

Dr. and Mrs. Violett, with their son, Malcom, and daughter, Ruth, of Garden Grove, attended the Presbyterian church Sunday. Malcom is home for vacation from Oregon Agricultural College.

Miss Grace Moore of Huntington Beach, and Miss Fay Weinschenk took dinner with Miss Marjorie Byram Sunday and attended the Endeavor rally in the afternoon.

Carroll Byram, who is working near Clearwater, spent Sunday at home.

An auto was turned over Sunday night one mile north of Westminster road on the boulevard. When the owner returned for it next morning, he found that it had been stripped by thieves.

Among those who spent Sunday at San Juan Capistrano, were Robert Hazard and family, sister and sister-in-law, Dee Campbell and Miss Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Grant passed Sunday afternoon with their daughter, Florence, in Los Angeles.

Children's Day will be observed next Sunday at the Presbyterian church. A program has been prepared by the different classes of the Sunday school. On account of the schools closing, these exercises were postponed from last Sunday.

Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Hagen went Tuesday to Huntington Beach on business, and spent the day.

Mrs. A. T. Armstrong, Mrs. Fannie Tedford and two children, Miss Bertha Armstrong and Will Armstrong, of Old Newport, called Sunday at the home of Harry Anderson.

John Y. Anderson came down from Los Angeles Friday and attended the funeral of Judge J. A. Willson, who was an old friend of Mr. Anderson in Virginia. Mr. Anderson will remain for a visit. He spent Monday with Dr. Violett and family at Garden Grove.

Mrs. E. S. Reed and daughter, Frances, of Long Beach, who visited relatives for several days last week, were the victims of a pleasant surprise, Saturday night, at the home of Mrs. Fuller, who is a cousin of Mrs. Reed. Ice cream and cake were brought in and a happy evening spent. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Francis, Miss Mary Frances, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller and two sons, Max and Percy, Misses Dorothy and Helen Hunt of Anaheim, Miss Esther Mills and Mrs. J. Story of Pasadena, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Eva Dicky, returned to their home Sunday afternoon.

The Happy Workers will hold their regular monthly all-day meeting on Wednesday, June 28, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Larter. Comforts will be tacked and also other work will be done.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon, it having been postponed from last week. The subjects taken up were China and Alaska. A letter from Robert E. Steer, written during his recent travels in China, was read by Miss Laura Thompson. An article on the asylum for blind children in Korea, and a letter from Dr. Hunt in Korea, were read by Mrs. Wardle. Mrs. Francis read a letter from J. P. Tappen, a missionary in the island of Hama. An account by Dr. Condit was read telling of the climate and vegetation of Alaska, also stating that the home land was contributing $10,000 to the work there.

NEWPORT BEACH AS HOME PLACE

Many Attractions and Amusement Features

Still Water Bathing, Boating, Canoeing, Yachting, Fishing, Among Pleasures

It would be difficult indeed to find a place in all California more desirable for a home place than that section encircling Newport Bay. Around the bay is the residence section proper. Some of the finest homes have been erected there.

Bathing and Boating

At Newport Beach, which includes all of Old Newport, East Newport and Balboa, both surf and still water bathing is indulged in. The latter is the chief attraction. What parent would not prefer its child to bathe in still water to seeing it exposed to the ocean's waves. Thousands of families come to Newport Beach for the express advantages offered by still water bathing.

Boating is another pleasure one finds in few amusement places in the Southland. Only the quiet waters of a bay permit the pleasures of canoeing and row boating. It is possible to go sailing and yachting on the ocean, but it is attempted by very few and then with fear. The bay at Newport is long enough to allow the annual exhibitions of sail boat, motor boat and launch racing.

The South Coast Yacht Club, recognizing the advantages of the bay, has erected a large pavilion at East Newport. Devotees to boating in any form come to Newport Bay by the thousands each season. The illuminated carnivals held on the waters during the summer evenings of July, August and September are visited by pleasure-seekers from everywhere.

Rapid Growth

Not more than twelve years ago the peninsula between Newport Bay and the ocean was given up to sand dunes and sandpipers. Today beautiful seaside bungalows have taken the place of the dunes and Newport claims a stable population of 1,500 and a summer population of 15,000.

Since the advent of the Pacific Electric, which runs along the peninsula between the bay and the ocean, the growth of Newport, East Newport and Balboa has been most rapid. It is stated on good authority that the Newport line out of Los Angeles is one of the busiest on the entire Pacific Electric service. Cars will be found well filled during the quiet hours of the day and loaded to capacity at rush time.

A Whole "City" of Amusements in One Large Building

About every amusement feature that will make joy perfect for you will be found at the Balboa Pavilion. If you have never spent a summer, or at least a week-end, at Balboa, by all means do so this season.

West Newport

If you approach Newport from the direction of Santa Ana or Los Angeles you come first to West Newport. West Newport was originally designed to become a summer resort. But it is now assuming commercial importance and will, when the proposed harbor is completed, be the commercial section proper of all Newport Beach.

Old Newport

Old Newport is Newport Beach proper. The City Hall is there and most of the other municipal "paraphernalia."

Along the ocean front are business houses and cottages, including a fine substantial bank and a bath house.

The City Hall is occupied by what was formerly the old school building. A new brick school building, architecturally very handsome, has been erected some distance beyond and serves the city's needs to perfect advantage, for the present at least.

East Newport

East Newport, less than a mile from Newport proper, has a reputation as a seaside residence section. Here are many men who have retired from active life. Their homes are fitted up to add comfort and good health during their declining days.

The lure of East Newport has attracted many people of prominence. The late Madam Mojeska had a summer home there.

Families come to East Newport in great numbers during the summer, where still water and surf bathing is at its best.

Balboa

The Pacific Electric car line stops at Balboa, which is easily the most attractive of the four townships comprising the City of Newport Beach. It has the best business section, the finest apartment houses, the largest pavilion and the greatest number of amusement attractions.

The pavilion in itself is a veritable amusement palace, where pleasure-seekers abound in great numbers.

Boating on the bay at Balboa is a favorite pastime. Dozens of boats, from canoes to yachts, are seen on the waters at one time during certain days of the summer season. In fact, almost any day in the year will see some sort of ferry or row boat skimming over the bay.

Transients find accommodations at Balboa in the way of apartments, bungalows, cottages or tents to fit their purse.

Balboa Island

Across the channel from Balboa is Balboa Island. Many beautiful improvements have been made on Balboa Island, chief among them is the home of W. S. Collins. It is a castle, surrounded by walls and fully protected from high tides and storms.

By boat the channel may be followed into the upper bay, where there is a vast spread of water. Finally toward the mouth of the bay the rocky stretch of coast running as far as Laguna and Arch Beach begins. The rocky caverns here and the swimming holes are an attraction.

Balboa Palisades

Above this rocky shore line, on the bluff, is Balboa Palisades, which is being fashioned into a garden spot by the present owners. Many beautiful homes have been erected there and also a very fine tavern.

The view from Balboa Palisades is one never to be forgotten. The entire coast line and the islands of Catalina and San Clemente are visible from this point.

A strip of land has recently been deeded to the county by the owners and a boulevard road from Santa Ana is the goal aimed at. Though the trip to Balboa Palisades is made by automobile, it is not nearly as pleasant as by ferry. It is less than fifteen minutes' ride on the bay and a very pleasant one.

City Conveniences

Newport Beach has a municipal water works and a gas plant. The gas question has always been a source of thorn in the eye of the city. By taking the matter in hand and putting in natural gas Newport Beach solved the most difficult of its municipal problems. The natural gas has not been turned into the gas mains, and will not be until the latter part of August or the first of September. But when it comes there is no doubt but that the entire community will take a day off and let 'er go all around in honor of the event.

Newport Beach has oiled streets, sidewalks and curbs along the main thoroughfares. The business sections at each place house an ample number of merchants, who supply every need.

Other Points

The fishing industry is carried on at a large scale at Newport. About $50,000 annually is earned by the fishermen here.

The back country of Newport is a very rich agricultural section. Water has been developed and the land, for most part, subdivided into small acreage.

The Last Feature

Newport Beach July 10th goes dry. This is the greatest single victory the city has had. So long as saloons existed at Newport, parents refused to allow their children to visit the place, and family parties took their outings elsewhere. Now it will be different. Already it has been noticed that a better class of people are heading Newport way.

Newport Beach will have the biggest summer in its history and begin its real growth this year.

The Harbor

The proposed harbor at Newport Bay means much to the city's future and to the entire counties of Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino. It will assure the prosperity of the future. Much more is said about the importance of this project elsewhere in this issue.

PIER AT BALBOA IS OPEN AGAIN

The pier at Balboa, damaged recently, has again been repaired and is open for fishing and promenading.

The structure has been made solid and is in better shape than ever before.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Brown Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains.

A friend who is a nurse said for me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W. C. Brown, 1109 Auburn Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.
